AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Death in Police Custody: Ingushetia, Russia

On 8 September 2007, law enforcement officials detained Murad Bogatyrev, 37, at his home in Ingushetia. He was taken to Malobek district police station where he died, allegedly as a result of torture and other ill-treatment. His death certificate said he died from serious coronary failure and ischaemic heart disease. It also records: 'Closed blunt wound to the ribcage with fractures of the breastbone and ribs at the cartilage, extensive bruising of the extremities.' His family insist he had no bruises or scratches the day before his detention and had never sought medical attention for any heart-related condition. In October, the Prosecutor's Office opened a criminal investigation into the case, but no progress has been made.

APPEAL Please write urging the authorities to investigate this case to: His Excellency Yury Viktorovich Fedotov, Embassy of the Russian Federation, 6-7 Kensington Palace Gardens, London, W8 4QX. Fax: (020) 7727 8625.
