The Israeli authorities must release Hammouri immediately and ensure that he is allowed to keep his residency status in Jerusalem and continue with his human rights work without fear of reprisals.

Cathedral Notices

The chalice is now being offered once again at The Eucharist. Those who feel comfortable to receive in two kinds are now able to do so. A chalice will be administered at all of the communion stations. If you wish to receive consecrated wine then please do so directly from the chalice; the practice of intinction, of dipping consecrated bread into the wine, creates a risk of infection and is not permitted. Please come forward to receive wearing a mask, remove it once at the front of the queue before receiving the sacrament, and replace it to walk back to your seat. Those who do not yet feel comfortable can continue to receive in one kind only.

Staying Safe. Please continue to wear masks whilst moving around inside the Cathedral, including to go up to receive communion. Masks are not required whilst at your seat or to sing. Please do not attend worship if you have Covid symptoms.

Funeral of Canon Gwyneth Evans. The funeral of Canon Gwyneth Evans, will be on Thurs 5 May, at 10am, in the Quire.

Funeral of Canon Ann Philp. The funeral of Ann Philp will take place in the Quire on Mon 23 May at 10am.

Contemplative Prayer. For several years Salisbury Cathedral has held a monthly a session of Contemplative Prayer. These have recommenced on the first Monday in the month, at 10am. The sessions last an hour, with four five-minute verbal inputs, each followed by a ten-minute period of silence. At the conclusion, those attending could always enjoy a chat over a hot drink and perhaps a tray-bake! The next is Monday 2 May at 10am in the Trinity Chapel.

2022 Organ Festival. Our celebratory Organ Festival begins this weekend with Thomas Trotter giving the opening recital this Saturday (1 April) at 7pm. If you are reading this notice after this concert has passed, there are many other events still to come, and the next concert will be given by Colin Walsh on Saturday 21 May at 7pm. The festival runs until November and features some of the world's leading concert organists in Saturday night concerts, a Sunday Organ Music series, an Organ Prom and an afternoon performance of Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf. Do join us in celebrating the return of our wonderful instrument. Details and tickets are on the cathedral website.

Children and Young People's Outreach Team. We are seeking to develop a volunteer team that will be active in supporting Salisbury Cathedral in its outreach and ministry to Children and Young People. This will involve direct delivery with young people, supporting current provision and helping to develop new initiatives. This is a dynamic and exciting time in our work with Children and young people as we consider what our future outreach and ministry will look like and are seeking passionate and motivated individuals to join us on this journey. If you feel that this is an area of ministry that you would like to be part of please contact Rev'd Pete Atkinson via e-mail at p.atkinson@salcath.co.uk

Christian Aid Week 15 – 21 May. This year many churches are opting for 'delivery-only envelopes' for Christian Aid Week. This means volunteers will only deliver envelopes to the houses in our allocated streets, they won't have to go back, knock on doors, and collect the envelopes back in. The envelopes will have a stick-on label inviting the household to fill the envelope and return it to a drop-off house on their street, or close by. They are also given the option of donating online, using a simple-to-use e-envelope. Would you be able and willing to help with this? If so please contact Rachel Lucas (325266) or Pip Carter (07854 827233).

Wills, Legacies and Inheritance. On Thurs 19 May at 7pm, Samantha O'Sullivan from Parker Bullen LLP will be giving a talk on matters to do with wills and estate planning and bringing us up to date with the latest information. The talk is free to attend, but donations to the Cathedral are welcome. There will be a glass of wine on arrival. All attendees will be eligible for a discount on making a will with Parker Bullen. If you would like to come, please let the Development Office know on devadmin@salcath.co.uk in advance to give an idea of numbers.
