May Prisoner of Conscience: Artist Aleksandra Skochilenko was arrested on the 11th of April and interrogated until three o'clock the next morning. She is accused of replacing price tags with anti-war information and slogans in a supermarket in Saint Petersburg on the 31st of March. She was charged with "disseminating knowingly false information about the use of Russian Armed Forces" and placed in pre-trial detention until the 1st of June. Aleksandra Skochilenko has a serious health condition and therefore placing her in pre-trial detention, where she would not be getting the appropriate diet or medical care she needs, puts her health and wellbeing at risk. She faces up to ten years in prison if she is convicted.

Residence this week

Canon Edward Probert

Saturday 28 May: The Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos.

Cathedral Notices

The Dean is preaching at St George's, Langton Matravers, this morning.

Staying Safe. It is no longer necessary to wear a mask whilst attending Cathedral worship. However, those administering communion will continue to wear masks during the distribution of communion. Please feel free to wear a mask or not, as you prefer.

Traidcraft stall this Sunday. We are delighted that our next Fairtrade stall after the 10.30 service will be this Sunday, 22 May, selling goods direct from Traidcraft. We don't have the facility to take cards, so payment by cash or cheque please. We look forward to receiving your custom!
Pip Carter & Rachel Lucas.

The chalice is now being offered once again at The Eucharist. Those who feel comfortable to receive in two kinds are now able to do so. A chalice will be administered at all of the communion stations. If you wish to receive consecrated wine then please do so directly from the chalice; the practice of intinction, of dipping consecrated bread into the wine, creates a risk of infection and is not permitted. Please come forward to receive wearing a mask, remove it once at the front of the queue before receiving the sacrament, and replace it to walk back to your seat. Those who do not yet feel comfortable can continue to receive in one kind only.

Organ Festival: This Weekend. Following a spectacular performance by Thomas Trotter on 30 April, the Organ Festival now continues with a concert given by Colin Walsh on Saturday 21 May at 19:00. As many of you will know, Colin was Assistant Organist here until 1985, and he will play a French-flavoured programme on this organ which, of course, he knows very well indeed. Tickets (£15) are available from the cathedral website. The following day (Sunday 22 May), I will be playing Messiaen's beautiful organ cycle L'Ascension prior to Evensong, in the first part of our 'Sunday Organ Music' series, and this will begin at 15:45. Messiaen's L'Ascension is a spectacular work, and very appropriate in the week leading up to the Feast of the Ascension. Do join us at these events.
John Challenger

Cathedral Deanery Intercessors. A meeting of the Cathedral Deanery Intercessors will be held on Sunday 22nd May at 3pm in the Conference Room at 6, The Close. Each Deanery Intercessor commits to pray regularly for the Rural Dean and Lay Chair of a Deanery in the Diocese and we usually meet twice a year. At present there are two Deaneries without an intercessor so if you would like to find out more do come along to the meeting or contact Felicity Green at pebblesandrocks@hotmail.co.uk

Funeral of Canon Ann Philp. The funeral of Ann Philp will take place in the Quire on Mon 23 May at 10am.

Service of Thanksgiving and Celebration on The Queen's Platinum Jubilee, Saturday 4 June, 4pm All are welcome at this special service in thanksgiving for 70 years of the Queen's reign. The service will be sung by the St John Singers, directed by Stephen Abbott and the Bishop of Sherborne will preach. The service will include a new anthem commissioned by Churches Together in England specially commissioned for the Jubilee Celebrations.

The Southern Cathedrals Festival is back, and on the 15-17 July 2022 returns to Salisbury Cathedral! The Festival brings together the choirs of Chichester, Salisbury and Winchester Cathedrals, to offer sacred choral and organ music performed to the very highest standard. There will be choral services, concerts large and small featuring our choirs as well as exciting visiting performers! We are particularly excited this year to welcome world-renowned performers such as Lutenist Elizabeth Kenny, the fantastic vocal ensemble The Gesualdo Six and one of Britain's finest period instrument orchestras, The Hanover Band. Tickets are now on sale to patrons and will go on sale to the general public from 23 May. Please see www.southerncathedralsfestival.org.uk for more information.

Sudan Fete. From the many enquiries I have had, I infer that you will all be pleased to know that the Fete will be going ahead again this year. Bearing in mind the many activities already scheduled for May/June this year, we decided to delay again until September. so...the fete will take place on 4th September, starting at 2pm, in the grounds of The Cathedral School, by very kind permission of Clive Marriott, the Headmaster. We look forward to seeing you all there.
