She was charged with "disseminating knowingly false information about the use of Russian Armed Forces" and placed in pre-trial detention until the 1st of June. Aleksandra Skochilenko has a serious health condition and therefore placing her in pre-trial detention, where she would not be getting the appropriate diet or medical care she needs, puts her health and wellbeing at risk. Cathedral Notices

Staying Safe. It is no longer necessary to wear a mask whilst attending Cathedral worship. However, those administering communion will continue to wear masks during the distribution of communion. Please feel free to wear a mask or not, as you prefer.

The Funeral of Tony Peace will take place in the Quire at 11.30am on Wednesday 1 June.

Service of Thanksgiving and Celebration on The Queen's Platinum Jubilee, Saturday 4 June, 4pm All are welcome at this special service in thanksgiving for 70 years of the Queen's reign. The service will be sung by the St John Singers, directed by Stephen Abbott and the Bishop of Sherborne will preach. The service will include a new anthem commissioned by Churches Together in England specially commissioned for the Jubilee Celebrations.

The chalice is now being offered once again at The Eucharist. Those who feel comfortable to receive in two kinds are now able to do so. A chalice will be administered at all of the communion stations. If you wish to receive consecrated wine then please do so directly from the chalice; the practice of intinction, of dipping consecrated bread into the wine, creates a risk of infection and is not permitted. Please come forward to receive wearing a mask, remove it once at the front of the queue before receiving the sacrament, and replace it to walk back to your seat. Those who do not yet feel comfortable can continue to receive in one kind only.

Join us in celebrating the Inauguration of the Ministry of The Rt Revd Stephen Lake as the 79th Bishop of Salisbury on Sunday 19 June at 15:00. All are welcome for what will be the first time the whole diocese has come together in person for over two years. Enjoy a specially written piece by Salisbury Cathedral's Director of Music David Halls called 'God is Love'. Entry is not ticketed and is open to all on a first come, first served basis. There will be refreshments available for the whole congregation after the service.

Organ Festival: It has been delightful to see so many people at our Organ Festival events. The next concert is given by Katherine Dienes on Saturday 18 June at 7pm. Katherine is Organist and Master of the Choristers at Guildford Cathedral and she has a great programme for us including some old favourites (such as Franck's beautiful Prelude, Fugue et Variation, and the Elgar Organ Sonata), but also some less well-known works including a piece by upcoming young composer Pia Rose Scattergood. Tickets are available on the Cathedral website: www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/organ-festival/.
Do join us. John Challenger

The Southern Cathedrals Festival is back, and on the 15-17 July 2022 returns to Salisbury Cathedral! The Festival brings together the choirs of Chichester, Salisbury and Winchester Cathedrals, to offer sacred choral and organ music performed to the very highest standard. There will be choral services, concerts large and small featuring our choirs as well as exciting visiting performers! We are particularly excited this year to welcome world-renowned performers such as Lutenist Elizabeth Kenny, the fantastic vocal ensemble The Gesualdo Six and one of Britain's finest period instrument orchestras, The Hanover Band. Tickets are now on sale! Please see www.southerncathedralsfestival.org.uk or the Cathedral website for more information.

Sudan Fete. From the many enquiries I have had, I infer that you will all be pleased to know that the Fete will be going ahead again this year. Bearing in mind the many activities already scheduled for May/June this year, we decided to delay again until September. so...the fete will take place on 4th September, starting at 2pm, in the grounds of The Cathedral School, by very kind permission of Clive Marriott, the Headmaster. We look forward to seeing you all there.
Madeleine Tarrant and The Fete Committee.
