Intercessions

The Sick: Stuart Richards, David Brown, James Sparks, Jill Brown, Laura Keller Coupe, Carina Kinnear, Jennifer Sedman, Rob Toay, Dorothy Malcolm.

The Recently Departed: Ann Philp, Bill Cave, Gordon Mitchell, Gill Baker.

Year's Mind: Gerald Squarey (2007), John Collier (2021), Jasmine Blakeway (2017), Keith Ladbury (1997), John Spencer (2021), Melanie Brook (2019).

May Prisoner of Conscience: Artist Aleksandra Skochilenko was arrested on the 11th of April and interrogated until three o'clock the next morning. She is accused of replacing price tags with anti-war information and slogans in a supermarket in Saint Petersburg on the 31st of March. She was charged with "disseminating knowingly false information about the use of Russian Armed Forces" and placed in pre-trial detention until the 1st of June. Aleksandra Skochilenko has a serious health condition and therefore placing her in pre-trial detention, where she would not be getting the appropriate diet or medical care she needs, puts her health and wellbeing at risk. She faces up to ten years in prison if she is convicted.

Residence this week

The Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos, Dean
Sunday 8 and Friday 13: Canon Edward Probert

Cathedral Notices

The chalice is now being offered once again at The Eucharist. Those who feel comfortable to receive in two kinds are now able to do so. A chalice will be administered at all of the communion stations. If you wish to receive consecrated wine then please do so directly from the chalice; the practice of intinction, of dipping consecrated bread into the wine, creates a risk of infection and is not permitted. Please come forward to receive wearing a mask, remove it once at the front of the queue before receiving the sacrament, and replace it to walk back to your seat. Those who do not yet feel comfortable can continue to receive in one kind only.

Staying Safe. Please continue to wear masks whilst moving around inside the Cathedral, including to go up to receive communion. Masks are not required whilst at your seat or to sing. Please do not attend worship if you have Covid symptoms.

Organ Festival. Following a spectacular performance by Thomas Trotter last Saturday, the Organ Festival now continues with a concert given by Colin Walsh on Saturday 21 May at 19:00. As many of you will know, Colin was Assistant Organist here until 1985, and he will play a French-flavoured programme on this organ which, of course, he knows very well indeed. Tickets (£15) are available from the cathedral website. The following day (Sunday 22 May), I will be playing Messiaen's beautiful organ cycle L'Ascension prior to Evensong, in the first part of our 'Sunday Organ Music' series, and this will begin at 15:45. Messiaen's L'Ascension is a spectacular work, and very appropriate in the week leading up to the Feast of the Ascension. Do join us at these events.

John Challenger

John Bell in Salisbury 8-9 May. Church of Scotland minister, member of the Iona Community, hymn writer and broadcaster, John Bell, is preaching at Salisbury Methodist Church on Sun 8 May at 10.30am and leading a workshop on 'Good Reasons to Sing' at 2.30pm. On Mon 9 May, John will be leading a short course on 'Revisiting the Psalms' at Sarum College from 10am to 4pm. To book, visit www.sarum.ac.uk/short-courses/revisiting-the-psalms/

Celebration a festival of flowers staging day is on Monday. The Cathedral, Refectory and Shop will be closed all day to enable over 450 flower arrangers to transform the Cathedral into a floral delight. Tickets still available online and there will be an opportunity to buy tickets on the day. Services will still take place in the Cathedral except for Holy Communion on Tuesday and Thursday, this will take place at Sarum College.

Wills, Legacies and Inheritance. On Thurs 19 May at 7pm, Samantha O'Sullivan from Parker Bullen LLP will be giving a talk on matters to do with wills and estate planning and bringing us up to date with the latest information. The talk is free to attend, but donations to the Cathedral are welcome. There will be a glass of wine on arrival. All attendees will be eligible for a discount on making a will with Parker Bullen. If you would like to come, please let the Development Office know on devadmin@salcath.co.uk in advance to give an idea of numbers.

Funeral of Canon Ann Philp. The funeral of Ann Philp will take place in the Quire on Mon 23 May at 10am.

The Southern Cathedrals Festival is back, and on the 15th - 17th July 2022 returns to Salisbury Cathedral! The Festival brings together the choirs of Chichester, Salisbury and Winchester Cathedrals, to offer sacred choral and organ music performed to the very highest standard. This year, we are delighted to be returning with our first full 'in-person' festival since 2019! There will be choral services, concerts large and small featuring our choirs as well as exciting visiting performers! We are particularly excited this year to welcome world-renowned performers such as Lutenist Elizabeth Kenny, the fantastic vocal ensemble The Gesualdo Six and one of Britain's finest period instrument orchestras, The Hanover Band. Tickets are now on sale to patrons and will go on sale to the general public from 23rd May. Please see www.southerncathedralsfestival.org.uk for more information.
