Cathedral Notices

Staying Safe. It is no longer necessary to wear a mask whilst attending Cathedral worship. However, those administering communion will continue to wear masks during the distribution of communion. Please feel free to wear a mask or not, as you prefer.

The chalice is now being offered once again at The Eucharist. Those who feel comfortable to receive in two kinds are now able to do so. A chalice will be administered at all of the communion stations. If you wish to receive consecrated wine then please do so directly from the chalice; the practice of intinction, of dipping consecrated bread into the wine, creates a risk of infection and is not permitted. Those who do not yet feel comfortable can continue to receive in one kind only.

Organ Festival: Following a great concert by Katherine Dienes, our Organ Festival continues through July and August with three exciting events. Today (Sunday 10 July) at 15:45, the Sunday Organ Music series continues with Sam Bristow playing the mighty Fantasy and Fugue on 'Ad nos' by Liszt. This is a fantastic opportunity not only to hear this epic work in its entirety (around 30 minutes' duration) but to hear Sam before he leaves us at the end of term to become Organist of St Matthew's, Westminster. On Saturday 23 July we welcome the incredibly talented Anna Lapwood to the cathedral, who will give an evening concert on the Willis organ at 19:00. And on Saturday 13 August, the very popular Organ Prom returns, beginning at 19:00. Dress up, drink Pimm's and prom along to your favourites! Visit the cathedral website for booking details.

Filming will be returning to the Close overnight on Tuesday 12/13th July, by Marsh Close. No impact to entry or exit out of the Close.

The Rosary Prayer Group will meet in Sarum College at 12 noon on Friday 15th July.

The Southern Cathedrals Festival is back, and on the 15-17 July 2022 returns to Salisbury Cathedral! The Festival brings together the choirs of Chichester, Salisbury and Winchester Cathedrals, to offer sacred choral and organ music performed to the very highest standard. There will be choral services, concerts large and small featuring our choirs as well as exciting visiting performers! We are particularly excited this year to welcome world-renowned performers such as Lutenist Elizabeth Kenny, the fantastic vocal ensemble The Gesualdo Six and one of Britain's finest period instrument orchestras, The Hanover Band. Tickets are now on sale! Please see www.southerncathedralsfestival.org.uk or the Cathedral website for more information.
