Cathedral Notices

“Here I am, Lord”: reflections on vocation.

In this sermon series for the summer the Cathedral clergy share their own stories, explore what led them to ordained ministry in the Church, and ask what it means for each of us to be called by God:

Sunday 24 July: Canon Ed Probert
Sunday 31 July: Canon Nigel Davies
Sunday 7 August: The Dean
Sunday 14 August: The Revd Maggie Guillebaud
Sunday 21 August: The Revd Pete Atkinson
Sunday 28 August: Canon Kenneth Padley
Sunday 4 September: Canon Anna Macham

Staying Safe. It is no longer necessary to wear a mask whilst attending Cathedral worship. However, those administering communion will continue to wear masks during the distribution of communion. Please feel free to wear a mask or not, as you prefer.

Traidcraft stall – there will be a stall after the 10.30 service today, Sunday 24th July. Please note we now have use of a card reader.

The Cathedral's Let's Go Green! leaflet has a section on My Lifestyle. The leaflet is available on the Cathedral Community Forum noticeboard in the South aisle. One question posed by the leaflet is 'Could I do more to avoid food waste?'. Did you know that one third of all food in the UK is wasted. Every year wasted food in the UK represents 25 million tonnes of carbon dioxide emissions. This equates to the emissions produced each year by 10 million or 1 in 3 cars on our roads. More information on how to reduce food waste is available from WRAP, the Government funded agency on food waste (wrap.org.uk). Food indeed for thought. Cathedral Community Forum

Organ Prom: On Saturday 13 August, the very popular Organ Prom returns, beginning at 19:00. The home team of organists (David Halls, John Challenger and Samuel Bristow) treat us to an evening of classics and film music. Dress up, drink Pimm's and prom along to your favourites! Visit the cathedral website for booking details.

George Herbert in Bemerton Group. Monday 25 July 7.30pm St John's Place, Lower Bemerton. 'Oh take thy lute, and tune it to a strain' : Herbert's musical instruments. Talk by Dr. Simon Jackson. Musical performances by renowned lute player Elizabeth Kenny. Refreshments afterwards. Email ghbgroup@georgeherbert.org.uk or phone 07876 642990 to book a free place.

Swing Unlimited Big Band 31 July & 28 August 13:30-16:00. Salisbury Cathedral will be hosting another afternoon of live music from Swing Unlimited big band in the Cathedral Close. Bring your dancing shoes and join us! If the weather is wet we will hold the event in our Cloisters. Picnics welcome. Our Restaurant, Bell Tower Tea Rooms and our Gift Shop will be open too. Free event, no booking necessary. There will be a donation point in support for the current Ukraine Crisis, all proceeds will be donated to DEC Ukraine Humanitarian Appeal.

Harnham Water Meadows Trust. The next Open Day at Rose Cottage will be from 2 - 5 p.m. on Saturday 6th August. At 3.30 there will be a sheep dog demonstration. All are welcome. Refreshments available.

Offerings for the Homeless and Needy. Non-perishable food and/or toiletries are invited for distribution in rotation to Alabare Christian Care, Salisbury Trust for the Homeless and Salisbury Food Bank (formerly Trussell Trust). Donations may be left where indicated by the stewards before or after the Sung Eucharist each Sunday.

Volunteers: Collection and delivery of offerings is dealt with by a team, normally of twelve, working in pairs on a rota basis. At present they are three short of their total and they are therefore looking for three volunteers to join them from 2nd October. Having own transport would be an advantage. If you would be interested, please contact the Scheme Co-ordinator, Geoffrey Knollys, on 01722 506656 (email geoffreyknollys@hotmail.co.uk).

Our Sudans Partnership needs your help! Later this year marks the 50th anniversary of our Salisbury – Sudans Partnership amongst the busiest in the Church of England and many of you will be aware that on Monday the 8th August some 45 bishops and their wives from Sudan and South Sudan will be coming to Salisbury from the Lambeth Conference in Canterbury. This very gratifying response to our invitations means we urgently need more kindly folks in our diocese to host and look after them until Friday or Saturday the 12th or 13th August. On the 8th August, hosts will be invited to join us for a reception and lunch in the Cathedral School and spend the afternoon in the Close with their nominated Bishop and his wife before Choral Evensong in the Cathedral, after which hosts will take them to their homes. If new hosts are in the Salisbury Deanery, plans are underway for some joint activity. For further information please contact Sheila Trist, Secretary to our Sudans Committee on sudan.secretary@salisbury.anglican.org.
