Cathedral Notices

Welcome to Ben Mills. We are delighted to welcome Ben Mills who will be our Organ Scholar until July 2024. Ben comes to Salisbury from London, where he has spent the last year studying for an MA in Organ Performance at the Royal Academy of Music. He has already held several church music roles, including Assistant Director of Music roles at St Michael's, Highgate and St Mark's, Hamilton Terrace, and Organ Scholarships at Keble College, Oxford, and Southwell Minster. He obtained his Fellowship of the Royal College of Organists in 2022.

Winter heating. In line with last autumn's policy of bearing down on carbon emissions and heating costs at the Cathedral, we will be carefully monitoring outside temperatures as we head into autumn. We plan to turn on the main heating for the beginning of November, but will do so earlier if needed. Kenneth Padley, Canon Treasurer.

TODAY 15 Oct: Cathedral Deanery Intercessors will meet today at 3pm in the Conference Room at 6 The Close. Each Deanery Intercessor commits to pray regularly for the Rural Dean and Lay Chair of a Deanery in the Diocese, usually meeting twice a year. At present there is one Deanery without an intercessor so if you would like to find out more do come along to the meeting or contact Felicity Green at pebblesandrocks@hotmail.co.uk

ALSO, especially for congregation and Close residents: Card Sale and Coffee Morning on Sat 28 Oct, 10am–12noon, 24 The Close by kind invitation of Canon Ed and Mrs Probert, to raise funds for the Sudan Medical Link.

An Evening with Beth Hughes. Tue 14 Nov 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College, SP1 2EE. Beth Hughes, Visual Arts Curator at Salisbury Cathedral, will be in dialogue with Canon Kenneth about her life and work, the interface between art and faith, and the impact of exhibiting contemporary works in a place of worship. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Two Canons Talking: More Outside In than Inside Out, Anna Macham and Tim Daykin share a passion for books about the Church: not heavyweight theological tomes, but novels from Trollope to contemporary fiction. Join them for an afternoon talking about two of their favourite books. Join in the discussion and share your own insights. The session will take place at Sarum College from 2-4pm on Sun 19 Nov. Numbers will be limited to 30, and we ask that you commit to read at least one of the two novels in advance. The books to be discussed are Purple Hibiscus, by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Father Frank by Paul Burke. Both books are available new and second hand, and as kindle editions. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter. To book a place, go to the Cathedral website: <https://www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/two-canons-talking-more-outside-in-than-inside-out/>

An Evening with Larry Hollingworth CBE Tue 21 Nov 6.30 for 7pm. This will be a talk on his work as the UN Envoy for Refugees. St Francis Church, Salisbury SP1 3PN. Tickets £20 to include a glass a of wine and light refreshments available via www.alabare.co.uk/get-involved/events or ruthhawley39@gmail.com

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Mon 27 Nov, 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College, SP1 2EE. Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. Prepare for Advent and the new Church year by exploring the book from which most Sunday morning gospel readings will be taken in 2024. Mark’s gospel is the earliest life of Jesus and so vital to our understanding of his life and mission. This evening will consider the structure of Mark and its core themes – secrecy and proclamation, exorcism and conflict, faith and doubt. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.
