Cathedral Notices

All Souls' Day Requiem. Thurs 2 Nov, 5.30pm. Any names of the faithful departed to be included on the list of those read during this service, please give to the Vestry as soon as possible in hard-copy, or by emailing vestry@salcath.co.uk, before 12noon on Tues 1 Nov. Please note the list from last year is not carried over, so you do need to tell the vestry each year if there are names you would like to be remembered.

All Souls' Day Flowers. As last year, there will also be a chance in the afternoon (02/11), at the Spire Crossing from 3.30–4.45pm, to dedicate a flower in memory of a loved one who has died, which will become part of an arrangement that will be in place during the special All Souls' Eucharist that follows. Please state your request to purchase a flower at the Welcome Desk in the Consistory Court.

Journeying to the Light. Former Team Rector of Swanage and Studland - previously Dean of Belfast - John Mann has written a book of daily reflections, Journeying to the Light, for Advent and Christmas, available in the cathedral shop for £11.99. Bishop Karen recommends it: 'As we travel thoughtfully through Advent to Christmas and beyond, John helpfully opens us up to new horizons, allowing God to prepare our hearts for what is to come'.

The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral is seeking a gregarious person with initiative, commitment and imperturbable composure for the role of Executive Secretary. If that could be you or someone you know, please contact Julia Lever on 01722 555190, or view the job details on the Cathedral website.

Many congratulations and thanks to everyone involved in the recent planting in the Eastern Garth. This community project aims to enhance the environment of the churchyard by adding plants that support winter pollinators. Particular thanks to Heather Olsen and Julian Happlewhite for their coordination and initiative.

Christmas Eve Family Services. we are looking for 'young actors' (aged 4+) to take part in the Cathedral family services this year. For more information and to register please contact education@salcath.co.uk

Card Sale and Coffee Morning. Sat 28 Oct, 10am–12noon, 24 The Close by kind invitation of Canon Ed and Mrs Probert, to raise funds for the Sudan Medical Link.

Darkness to Light: The Advent Procession. The services this year will be held on Friday, 1 Dec at 7pm, Saturday, 2 Dec at 7pm, and Sunday, 3 Dec at 5pm. The doors will open each night one hour before the start of the service. No tickets are required for this service, queue numbers will be issued on each night, to ensure fair access to the Cathedral and these will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. All further details can be found on the Cathedral website.

Used Stamps. Moira Dickson collects used postage stamps (apart from the Scout stamps) all year round for the Naomi House Childrens' Hospice and would like to thank all members of the congregation for their support. Please keep collecting for her and leave in the vestry.

Welcome to Ben Mills. We are delighted to welcome Ben as our Organ Scholar until July 2024. Ben has spent the last year studying for an MA in Organ Performance at the Royal Academy of Music and has already held several church music roles, including Assistant Director of Music roles at St Michael's, Highgate and St Mark's, Hamilton Terrace, and Organ Scholarships at Keble College, Oxford, and Southwell Minster. He obtained his Fellowship of the Royal College of Organists in 2022.

An Evening with Beth Hughes. Tue 14 Nov 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College, SP1 2EE. Beth Hughes, Visual Arts Curator at Salisbury Cathedral, will be in dialogue with Canon Kenneth about her life and work, the interface between art and faith, and the impact of exhibiting contemporary works in a place of worship. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Evensongs. An Evening with Andrew Rumsey, The Bishop of Ramsbury at The Medieval Hall, Thurs 16 Nov at 7.30pm. Bishop Andrew steps away from his cope for this evening, adopting his other persona as a highly talented composer and musician (guitar and voice) and also an author - a man of poetry and prose. Bishop Andrew will perform songs from his new album and readings from his acclaimed book 'English Grounds'. In this solo performance he will share his deep and knowledgeable appreciation of the countryside around us, together with its local history. He considers nature, the seasons, the weather and how it all can help us to make sense of the world around us and our place in it. Tickets (£12.50) are available from www.salisburymedievalhall.com or 07773210706.

Two Canons Talking: More Outside In than Inside Out, Anna Macham and Tim Daykin share a passion for books about the Church: not heavyweight theological tomes, but novels from Trollope to contemporary fiction. Join them for an afternoon talking about two of their favourite books. Join in the discussion and share your own insights. The session will take place at Sarum College from 2-4pm on Sun 19 Nov. Numbers will be limited to 30, and we ask that you commit to read at least one of the two novels in advance. The books to be discussed are Purple Hibiscus, by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Father Frank by Paul Burke. Both books are available new and second hand, and as kindle editions. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter. To book a place, go to the Cathedral website: <https://www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/two-canons-talking-more-outside-in-than-inside-out/>

An Evening with Larry Hollingworth CBE Tue 21 Nov 6.30 for 7pm. This will be a talk on his work as the UN Envoy for Refugees. St Francis Church, Salisbury SP1 3PN. Tickets £20 to include a glass a of wine and light refreshments available via www.alabare.co.uk/get-involved/events or ruthhawley39@gmail.com

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Mon 27 Nov, 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College, SP1 2EE. Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. Prepare for Advent and the new Church year by exploring the book from which most Sunday morning gospel readings will be taken in 2024. Mark's gospel is the earliest life of Jesus and so vital to our understanding of his life and mission. This evening will consider the structure of Mark and its core themes – secrecy and proclamation, exorcism and conflict, faith and doubt. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Book Launch: The Infernal Word. You are warmly invited to the launch of 'The Infernal Word: Notes from a Rebel Angel' by The Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos, Dean of Salisbury, on Tues 5 Dec and 6.45pm. The Dean will be talking about his new book with Chapter member Canon Tim Daykin followed by a book signing. There will be musical accompaniment from harpist Katie Salomon and refreshments will be served. Tickets are free and can be reserved on the Cathedral website from Mon 23 Oct.
