Cathedral Notices

TODAY, 19 Nov, 2-4pm: Two Canons Talking: More Outside In than Inside Out, Anna and Tim share a passion for books about the Church: not heavyweight theological tomes, but novels from Anthony Trollope to contemporary fiction. Join them for an afternoon talking about two of their favourite books at Sarum College. Please book your place using the link below. The books to be discussed are Purple Hibiscus, by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Father Frank by Paul Burke. Both books are available new and second-hand, and as kindle editions. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter. Please note that parking will not be available at Sarum College. Free tickets: salburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/two-canons-talking-more-outside-in-than-inside-out/

TODAY: Fairtrade stall. There will be a stall after the 10.30 service today, 19 Nov, which will include things for Christmas.

Amici, The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral Choristers, will be selling Christmas cards after the Sunday morning Eucharist service every Sunday until Christmas. We have 4 Christmas designs and one design blank for your own message. Cash or card payments accepted. Cards can also be ordered by emailing amici@salburycathedralschool.com. Proceeds to the Choral Foundation.

Darkness to Light: The Advent Procession. The services this year will be held on Fri 1 and Sat 2 Dec at 7pm, and Sun 3 Dec at 5pm. The doors will open each night one hour before the start of the service. No tickets are required for this service, queue numbers will be issued on each night, to ensure fair access to the Cathedral and these will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. All further details can be found on the Cathedral website.

New 'Salisbury Christmas' CD out now. We're excited to share that 'Salisbury Christmas', the anticipated new CD from the Cathedral Choir is now on sale. The CD features a mix of traditional favourites and new carols and is available for purchase (£12.50) from the Cathedral Shop, or available to stream and download online. Proceeds from sales of CDs bought in the shop go to the Choral Foundation. An ideal Christmas gift!

SCS Organ Scholar. Salisbury Cathedral School is looking for a girl, currently in year 6 who plays the piano, to join the school in September 2024 as the next Griffiths Chapel Organ Scholar. The organ scholarship programme runs for school years 7 and 8, and includes weekly organ lessons, regular performance opportunities, a 20% school fee remission, and access to further means tested bursary funding. To apply, please email admissions@salburycathedralschool.com.

On Sat 9 Dec at 7pm, Salisbury Cathedral Choir will be joined by soloists Camilla Harris, William Shelton, Michael Bell and Callum Thorpe, with the City of London Sinfonia to perform Handel's masterpiece, Messiah. Tickets (£10-£40; Children, £7) are available on the Cathedral website: www.salburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/handels-messiah/

Make your evening extra special with a delicious one or two-course pre-concert dinner in The Refectory, finished with coffee and a warm mince pie. To book your table please call The Refectory on 01722 555175 or email refectory@salcath.co.uk. Menus can be viewed at the above web address. Pre-payment and menu choices required at time of booking.

St John Singers' Christmas Concert. You are warmly invited to the St John Singers' Magic of Christmas on Wed 20 Dec, at 7.30pm, in St Thomas's Church, and thus to raise funds for Salisbury-based charity, Alabare. Directed by Stephen Abbott and accompanied by Ben Mills (piano/organ) and Gallery Brass, with guest soloist Mary Chelu - Flute, there will be the usual festive mix of traditional and new carols. Tickets (with a glass of wine and mince pie included) are £15, and may be obtained from Casa Fina (62 High Street 01722 326428), from choir members and on the door.

Israel and Gaza: a Peace Vigil. A reminder that this has been postponed until 26 Nov at Salisbury Methodist Church, 3-3.30pm. You are invited to join us to remember all in Israel/Palestine and elsewhere in the world involved in ongoing conflict.

Salisbury LGBTQ+ Christians will host a Transgender Remembrance Gathering on Sunday 26 November at Salisbury United Reformed Church, 3.15pm for a 3.30pm start, to honour and to remember the lives of transgender individuals who have died as a result of violence and discrimination. All are welcome.

Name Amnesty. A particular invitation to stay for refreshments after the 10.30am service on Sunday 26 Nov. Those staying for coffee will be invited to write a name badge (pens and sticky labels provided). It's a simple way to help us get to know one another, including those we've met before but it's too embarrassing to ask their name again!

Book Launch. You are warmly invited to the launch of 'The Infernal Word: Notes from a Rebel Angel' by The Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos, Dean of Salisbury, on 5 Dec at 6.45pm. The Dean will be talking about his new book with Chapter member Canon Tim Daykin followed by a book signing. There will be musical accompaniment from harpist Katie Salomon and refreshments will be served. Tickets are free and can be reserved on the Cathedral website from Mon 23 Oct.

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Tues 23 Jan 2024, 7.30-8.45pm in Sarum College. (This is a re-rerun for those unable to get seats at the November session.) Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. Mark's gospel, from which most Sunday morning gospel readings will be taken in 2024, is the earliest life of Jesus and so vital to our understanding of his life and mission. This evening will consider the structure of Mark and its core themes – secrecy and proclamation, exorcism and conflict, faith and doubt. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Homer's Iliad Books I-XII. Machaira Press has published a translation of Homer's Iliad Books I-XII, uniquely with a same-page original Greek text, by Andrew Mackay (lay vicar 1979-1996). If you would like a copy, please contact him directly (info@machairapress.co.uk) as there are big reductions from the Amazon prices for Cathedral members. Website: machairapress.co.uk
