Saturday 11 November: Canon Anna Macham

Intercessions

The Sick: Jane Merian, Ian Woodward, Rosemary Gainsbury, Sandra Currie, Chris Hawkyard, Natalie Morabito, Maria Barrows, Simon Wilkinson, John Lever, Tracy Clayfield, 'Baby Max'.

Year's Mind: Savvas Lellas (2018), Sarah Roberts (2019), Patrick Alan Crozier-Cole (1990), Jane Pelly (2019), John Maurice Botting (2015), Susan Keynes (2014), John Roseaman (2014), Olive Mary Marriott (2022).

November Prisoner of Conscience: Mahmoud Hussein from Egypt, a protester who had already spent two years in arbitrary pretrial detention for wearing an anti-torture T-shirt, was re-arrested on 30 August. After his release on bail in 2016, he was convicted of bogus charges and sentenced to life imprisonment in his absence in an unfair trial by an emergency court marred by allegations of torture. He is detained pending his retrial, amid concerns over his health. He must be immediately and unconditionally released.

Cathedral Notices

Remembrance Sunday. Please note Sunday 12/11 The Eucharist will start at 10:50am with The Act of Remembrance. It is not possible to serve congregation coffee following The Eucharist as the service will finish much later following a later start at 10:50am for the Act of Remembrance.

INEQE Safeguarding Audit Questionnaire The Cathedral and the Diocese of Salisbury will be undergoing a safeguarding audit in early Jan 2024, led by a company called INEQE. As part of the preparation work, INEQE would like to hear any comments regarding safeguarding at the Cathedral. The survey can be accessed at <https://ineqe.com/churchofengland/salisbury/> and is anonymous and confidential. The closing date for the survey is the 15 Nov 2023, thank you for taking time to complete the survey if you can. Jackie Molnar, Chapter Clerk (Chief Operating Officer).

Salisbury Christmas We're excited to share with you the news that the Cathedral Choir is about to release a new Christmas recording. 'Salisbury Christmas' will be out on 15 November, and is a mix of traditional favourites and new carols. It will be available for purchase (£12.50) from the Cathedral Shop, or available to stream and download online. Proceeds from sales of CDs bought in the shop go to the Choral Foundation. An ideal Christmas gift!

Journeying to the Light. Former Team Rector of Swanage and Studland - previously Dean of Belfast - John Mann has written a book of daily reflections, Journeying to the Light, for Advent and Christmas, available in the cathedral shop for £11.99. Bishop Karen recommends it: 'As we travel thoughtfully through Advent to Christmas and beyond, John helpfully opens us up to new horizons, allowing God to prepare our hearts for what is to come.'

Darkness to Light: The Advent Procession. The services this year will be held on Friday, 1 Dec at 7pm, Saturday, 2 Dec at 7pm, and Sunday, 3 Dec at 5pm. The doors will open each night one hour before the start of the service. No tickets are required for this service, queue numbers will be issued on each night, to ensure fair access to the Cathedral and these will be granted on a first-come, first-served basis. All further details can be found on the Cathedral website.

Reflective Prayer. The Revd Bill Smith will be leading the next of our regular sessions of guided silence at 10am on Mon 6 Nov in the Trinity Chapel. Bill will be familiar to many as the person who coordinates the Cathedral Chaplains Rota. Those who can, are invited to stop off at the Refectory for a cuppa, perhaps a cake or biscuit, and for a time of fellowship.

Israel and Gaza: a Peace Vigil will be held at Salisbury Methodist Church on Sunday 12 November, 3.00-3.30pm. Christian Aid have launched a humanitarian appeal: donations can be made at Middle East Crisis Appeal | Christian Aid

An Evening with Beth Hughes. Tue 14 Nov 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College. Beth Hughes, Visual Arts Curator at Salisbury Cathedral, will be in dialogue with Canon Kenneth about her life and work, the interface between art and faith, and the impact of exhibiting contemporary works in a place of worship. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Evensongs. An Evening with Andrew Rumsey, Bishop of Ramsbury at The Medieval Hall, 16 Nov at 7.30pm. Bishop Andrew adopts his other persona as a highly talented musician and author - a man of poetry and prose. Bishop Andrew will perform songs from his new album and readings from his acclaimed book 'English Grounds'. In this solo performance he will share his deep and knowledgeable appreciation of the countryside around us, together with its local history. He considers nature, the seasons, the weather and how it all can help us to make sense of the world around us and our place in it. Tickets (£12.50) are available from www.salisburymedievalhall.com or 07773210706.

Two Canons Talking: More Outside In than Inside Out, Anna Macham and Tim Daykin share a passion for books about the Church: not heavyweight theological tomes, but novels from Trollope to contemporary fiction. Join them for an afternoon talking about two of their favourite books at Sarum College, 2-4pm on Sun 19 Nov. Join in the discussion and share your own insights. Numbers will be limited to 30, and we ask that you commit to read at least one of the two novels in advance: Purple Hibiscus by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Father Frank by Paul Burke. Both books are available new and second hand, and as kindle editions. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter. Free tickets: <https://www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/two-canons-talking-more-outside-in-than-inside-out/>

An Evening with Larry Hollingworth CBE 21 Nov 6.30 for 7pm, a talk on his work as the UN Envoy for Refugees. St Francis Church, Salisbury SP1 3PN. Tickets £20 including a glass of wine and light refreshments. www.alabare.co.uk/get-involved/events or ruthhawley39@gmail.com

Salisbury LGBTQ+ Christians will host a Transgender Remembrance Gathering on Sunday 26 November at Salisbury United Reformed Church, 3.15pm for a 3.30pm start, to honour and to remember the lives of transgender individuals who have died as a result of violence and discrimination. All are welcome.

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Mon 27 Nov, 7.30–8.45pm, led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. All tickets now allocated; a repeat may be organised in early 2024.

Book Launch. You are warmly invited to the launch of 'The Infernal Word: Notes from a Rebel Angel' by The Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos, Dean of Salisbury, on 5 Dec at 6.45pm. The Dean will be talking about his new book with Chapter member Canon Tim Daykin followed by a book signing. There will be musical accompaniment from harpist Katie Salomon and refreshments will be served. Tickets are free and can be reserved on the Cathedral website from Mon 23 Oct.

Amici, The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral Choristers, will be selling Christmas cards after the Sunday morning Eucharist service today and every Sunday in the run up to Christmas. We have 4 different Christmas designs and one design that is blank for your own message. Cash or card payments accepted. Cards can also be ordered by emailing amici@salisburycathedralschool.com All proceeds to Salisbury Cathedral Choral Foundation.

Messiah. On Sat 9 Dec at 7pm, Salisbury Cathedral Choir will be joined by soloists Camilla Harris, William Shelton, Michael Bell and Callum Thorpe, with the City of London Sinfonia to perform Handel's masterpiece, Messiah. Tickets (£10- £40; Children, £7) are available on the Cathedral website: <https://www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/handels-messiah/>

Make your evening extra special with a delicious one or two-course pre-concert dinner in The Refectory, finished with coffee and a warm mince pie.
