Cathedral Notices

We have had an outstanding response to September's Giving Campaign from across our congregations! In summary:

- 16 people have become regular donors to the Cathedral for the first time;
- 35 existing donors have transferred their giving from Standing Order to the more efficient Parish Giving Scheme;
- 18 existing donors have increased their level of giving.

It is still a little early to assess the impact of the campaign on overall levels of giving but the effect will clearly be positive. Thank you to everyone who has got involved. If you have yet to do so or would like further information, please go to 'Regular Giving' under the 'More' tab of our website. Canon Kenneth's sermon from 17th September about Christian giving and the Cathedral's budget is on our Youtube channel, and Kenneth and Development Manager Jilly Wright would love to hear from you if you have questions about this important part of our life together.

This year's Advent and Christmas art installation is part of a wider body of work by Shezad Dawood called Leviathan. The title comes from the biblical sea monster which Wiltshire-born philosopher Thomas Hobbes later used to describe the state. The exhibition invites reflection on issues faced by the world, in particular climate change and migration. It resonates with this season as a reminder that Jesus was born into the messiness of the real world, not a Christmas of superficial tinsel. Please take a free interpretation leaflet from the back of the cathedral to find out more.

Liturgical Furniture. You may remember that earlier this year we trialled mock-ups of new liturgical furniture for the Spire Crossing and Trinity Chapel. We appreciated the questionnaire responses that we received from the congregation, volunteers and staff at the time. In the last week we have been delighted to receive the new altars, daises and clergy chairs, which are now in the Cathedral and are now in use. They will be consecrated by Bishop Stephen at a service in January, of which details will follow in due course. This is an exciting moment for the Cathedral being the culmination of many years of discussion, planning and consideration. Jackie Molnar, Chapter Clerk (Chief Operating Officer)

Christian Aid are among the charities responding to the need for essential humanitarian relief and psychological support in the Holy Land at the present time. More information and ways to give are on their website: www.christianaid.org.uk/appeals/emergencies/middle-east-crisis-appeal

Amici, The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral Choristers, will be selling Christmas cards after the Sunday morning Eucharist service every Sunday until Christmas. We have 4 Christmas designs and one design blank for your own message. Cash or card payments accepted. Cards can also be ordered by emailing amici@salisburycathedralschool.com. Proceeds to the Choral Foundation.

New 'Salisbury Christmas' CD out now. We're excited to share that 'Salisbury Christmas', the anticipated new CD from the Cathedral Choir is now on sale. The CD features a mix of traditional favourites and new carols and is available for purchase (£12.50) from the Cathedral Shop. Proceeds from sales of CDs bought in the shop go to the Choral Foundation. An ideal Christmas gift!

Late night opening 14 December from 18:30–20:30, free with Carol singing, a chance to see the Library and view from the west window. The Christmas tree will be up with the new nativity and children's Christmas activities.

Festive Family Day 16 December. Music and craft activity is free, included with an admission ticket to the Cathedral. 10:00–12:00 Family Christmas Craft Activity; Carol singing at the Spire Crossing 12:30–13:15 Cathedral Youth Choir and 14:00–14:45 Kate Edgar Singers.

There will be another Candlelight Vigil for a permanent Ceasefire for Gaza, Israel and the West Bank Palestinian Territories on Saturday 16th December 4.15–4.45pm outside Salisbury Library. Please bring candles, jars and lanterns

Bach Cantata Evensong. On Sunday 17 December at 4.30pm Evensong will include J S Bach's Cantata BWV 140 Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme performed by the Cathedral Choir, soloists and period instruments. Based on the hymn Wachet auf by Philipp Nicolai, this cantata was first performed in 1731 and is often performed during Advent. All are welcome to attend.

St John Singers' Christmas Concert. You are warmly invited to the St John Singers' Magic of Christmas on Wed 20 Dec, at 7.30pm, in St Thomas's Church, and thus to raise funds for Salisbury-based charity, Alabare. Directed by Stephen Abbott and accompanied by Ben Mills (piano/organ) and Gallery Brass, with guest soloist Mary Chelu - Flute, there will be the usual festive mix of traditional and new carols. Tickets (with a glass of wine and mince pie included) are £15, and may be obtained from Casa Fina (62 High Street 01722 326428), from choir members and on the door.

Quiz & Curry Fri 26 Jan 2024 at 7pm at Salisbury Cathedral School. A return of last year's sell out quiz fundraising for Cathedral Choir Tours. Teams of up to six people, music rounds sung by the Cathedral Lay Vicars and a bar will be available. Tickets £22 to include food and are available by emailing devadmin@salcath.co.uk or calling 01722 555122.

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Tues 23 Jan 2024, 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College. (This is a re-rerun for those unable to get seats at the November session.) Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. Mark's gospel, from which most Sunday morning gospel readings will be taken in 2024, is the earliest life of Jesus and so vital to our understanding of his life and mission. This evening will consider the structure of Mark and its core themes – secrecy and proclamation, exorcism and conflict, faith and doubt. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.
