Cathedral Notices

This year's Advent and Christmas art installation is part of a wider body of work by Shezad Dawood called Leviathan. The title comes from the biblical sea monster which Wiltshire-born philosopher Thomas Hobbes later used to describe the state. The exhibition invites reflection on issues faced by the world, in particular climate change and migration. It resonates with this season as a reminder that Jesus was born into the messiness of the real world, not a Christmas of superficial tinsel. Please take a free interpretation leaflet from the back of the cathedral to find out more.

Liturgical Furniture. You may remember that earlier this year we trialled mock-ups of new liturgical furniture for the Spire Crossing and Trinity Chapel. We appreciated the questionnaire responses that we received from the congregation, volunteers and staff at the time. The new altars, daises and clergy chairs are now in the Cathedral and in use. They will be consecrated by Bishop Stephen at a service in January, of which details will follow in due course. This is an exciting moment for the Cathedral being the culmination of many years of discussion, planning and consideration. Jackie Molnar, Chapter Clerk (Chief Operating Officer)

Christian Aid are among the charities responding to the need for essential humanitarian relief and psychological support in the Holy Land at the present time. More information and ways to give are on their website: www.christianaid.org.uk/appeals/emergencies/middle-east-crisis-appeal

'Salisbury Christmas' CD. We're excited to share that 'Salisbury Christmas', the anticipated new CD from the Cathedral Choir is now on sale. The CD features a mix of traditional favourites and new carols and is available for purchase (£12.50) from the Cathedral Shop. Proceeds from sales of CDs bought in the shop go to the Choral Foundation. An ideal last-minute Christmas gift!

Quiz & Curry Fri 26 Jan 2024 at 7pm at Salisbury Cathedral School. A return of last year's sell out quiz fundraising for Cathedral Choir Tours. Teams of up to six people, music rounds sung by the Cathedral Lay Vicars and a bar will be available. Tickets £22 to include food and are available by emailing devadmin@salcath.co.uk or calling 01722 555122.

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Tues 23 Jan 2024, 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College. (This is a re-rerun for those unable to get seats at the November session.) Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. Mark's gospel, from which most Sunday morning gospel readings will be taken in 2024, is the earliest life of Jesus and so vital to our understanding of his life and mission. This evening will consider the structure of Mark and its core themes – secrecy and proclamation, exorcism and conflict, faith and doubt. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Edward Burne-Jones: Windows to the Soul Talk. Thurs 1 Feb 2024 at 7pm in the North Transept. Our 19th Century stained-glass window in the South Quire Aisle, designed by eminent Pre Raphaelites, Sir Edward Burne-Jones and William Morris, needs vital work to restore it to its original beauty. In this talk, Nicholas Tromans, an expert in nineteenth-century British art, will introduce this important conservation project.

Nicholas Tromans has worked in universities, museums, and auction houses. He is the author of many books and articles on artists including Richard Dadd, G. F. Watts, and William Holman Hunt. He was one of the contributors to the catalogue of Tate Britain's 2018 Burne-Jones exhibition.

Tickets (Adult: £12.50; Student with valid student ID: £6.50) available on the Cathedral website, email (boxoffice@salcath.co.uk) or phone (01722 656555) Monday - Friday, 10am-4pm. For visitors with access requirements please contact the cathedral box office to book your tickets.
