Intercessions

The Sick: Jane Merian, Rosemary Gainsbury, Martin Beard, Mary White.

Recently Departed: Roy Whitehead, Natalie Morabito, Chris Greenwood.

Year's Mind: Aimée Luton (2014), Ruth Margaret Bryant (2017), John Morris (2008), Stephen Wickham (2016), Margaret Grace Martin-Jones (2009), Graham Daniels (2023), Margaret Joan Downing (2017), Deidre Marjorie Steward (2019), Andrew Craigie (2003).

January Prisoner of Conscience: Ana da Silva Miguel (also known as Neth Nahara), was arrested in Luanda, Angola. On 14 August she was convicted to 6 months in prison for recording a live video on TikTok criticising the president. Following an appeal by the public prosecutor in September, her sentence was increased to 2 years in prison. Since her arrest, Nahara has been denied access to her daily medication and in December was hospitalised due to her deteriorating health. Her conviction and sentence stem from the peaceful exercise of her right to freedom of expression. Neth Nahara must be immediately released.

Cathedral Notices

New Missioner for Young People. We are pleased to announce that The Revd Ross Meikle has been appointed as the Cathedral's Missioner for Young People. Ross was ordained deacon in 2017 and priest in 2018, and is currently Vicar of Redlands Parish Church, in the Diocese of Oxford. He will be licensed by the Bishop at Evensong on Sunday 10 March. We look forward to welcoming Ross to the Cathedral community, and to working with him.

We are looking to run Baptism/Confirmation preparation ahead of the Easter Vigil at the end of March. Please speak with any of the Cathedral clergy to find out more, or email Kenneth on treasurer@salcath.co.uk

Magna Carta, Conversations in Salisbury 1260. Sue Allenby has written another novel about C13 Salisbury: Magna Carta, Conversations in Salisbury 1260: £9.95, from the Cathedral shop or Amazon, profits from both going to the Cathedral. It may not be quite as you expect! On the front cover, a pair of men's long-toed shoes in fine red leather. On the back cover, the reader is standing in the queue at Fish Stall No 4 while ahead men are gossiping about the stranger who wears those shoes and behind Millie Miller would like to be served - preferably today! The Dean says, "Those of us who enjoyed Elias of Dereham will thank Sue Allenby for leading us into our medieval past once more, with the eye for detail and narrative flair that we have come to expect of her".

Stamps. Moira Dixon is very grateful for all the stamps that people have given. She has taken a big bag, along with a box of stamp albums, to Naomi House Hospice, which were gratefully received. Please keep saving stamps all year round as she gives them in at odd intervals. Thank you.

The Lydians will meet on 19 January at 2.30pm at St Nicholas Hospital, when the speaker will be John Challenger, Assistant Director of Music at the cathedral. Anyone needing a lift please contact Mary White on 01722 326874

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Tues 23 Jan 2024, 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College (rerun of November session). Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. This evening will consider the structure of Mark's gospel and its core themes – secrecy and proclamation, exorcism and conflict, faith and doubt. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Edward Burne-Jones: Windows to the Soul Talk. Thurs 1 Feb, 7pm, in the North Transept. Our 19th Century stained-glass window in the South Quire Aisle, designed by eminent Pre-Raphaelites, Sir Edward Burne-Jones and William Morris, needs vital work to restore it to its original beauty. In this talk, Nicholas Tromans, who has worked in universities, museums, and auction houses, is an expert in 19thC British art and will introduce this important conservation project. He is the author of books and articles on artists including Richard Dadd, G. F. Watts, and William Holman Hunt. He was a contributor to the catalogue of Tate Britain's 2018 Burne-Jones exhibition. Tickets (Adult: £12.50; Student with valid student ID: £6.50) available on the Cathedral website, or Box Office (boxoffice@salcath.co.uk, 01722 656555). For visitors with access requirements please contact the box office.

Christian Aid Quiz. Fri 2 Feb 7pm for 7.30pm at St Mark's church. Teams of 6, £5 a head. Nibbles are provided, bring your own drinks. Nominate a team leader, and contact Clare Tawney (christianaidquiz1@gmail.com or 01722 414855) to book a table.

A Unique Concert for Wiltshire. 8 Feb 2024, 7pm. The event will see award-winning concert pianist Rupert Egerton-Smith perform alongside The Band of The Grenadier Guards and The Band and Bugles of The Rifles. The tickets are on sale now via the Cathedral website or at the Front Desk.

Piano Duets by Candlelight. Fri 16 Feb, 8.30pm, with drinks available from 7pm in the Cathedral Refectory. Original music and arrangements for piano duet played by David Halls and Alistair Watson. Schubert's beautiful Fantasie in F minor, with Debussy's Petite Suite and York Bowen's Suite. Two famous dances by Brahms and Dvorak are included, as are lighter pieces by Thomas Johnson (his engaging Rumba) and William Walton. Tickets from the Cathedral website and box office (Adults: £15; Children £7).

God and the ballot box: Christian perspectives on General Election issues. The Cathedral is delighted to host an ecumenical Lent Lecture programme with speakers from across the churches of Salisbury. Mondays in Lent, 7.30–9pm in the Cathedral. To include a talk, Q&A, and Compline. Entry free; no booking required.

- Feb 19 Mark Cheetham (Methodist) The Environmental Crisis
- Feb 26 Pete Orphan (Baptist) Health and Social Care
- Mar 4 Katie FitzSimmons (Diocesan Director of Education) Education
- Mar 11 John Proctor (Roman Catholic) Immigration and Refugees
- Mar 18 Kenneth Padley (Cathedral) Just Economics

Lent Lunches. Who would have thought that I would be saying this again SO soon! But amazingly it is only 5 weeks until the first lunch on 16 February. Please make a note in your diaries to support the lunches so that we can raise a good amount for the excellent work of the Medical Link in South Sudan. They provide not only Medicines for use in the clinics but also Maternity Packs and provide grants for training Midwives and Pharmacists. Our band of soup and sandwich makers, who provide all supplies out of the kindness of their hearts, will look forward to welcoming you at The Hungerford Chantry or the first lunch. Any queries Madeleine on 07773 740789.

In the Footsteps of St Peter: A Pilgrimage to Rome, 18–24 May 2025. The Revd Maggie Guillebaud, assisted by Canon Probert, will lead a pilgrimage to Rome to search out the very earliest evidence of Christianity in that iconic city, not least the presences of Sts Peter and Paul who helped shape early Christian life there. We shall visit not only 4th century churches, often built over the sites of the martyrdom of early Christian converts, but also the Catacombs and the Scavi beneath the high altar of St Peter, where some believe the bones of St Peter have been found. We shall be staying at the charming convent of Santa Brigida in the centre of Rome. This pilgrimage will be strenuous. It will be hot, we shall be walking on cobbled streets, and we shall be going up and down many steep staircases to reach these early sites. If you require walking aids this will not be a suitable trip for you, alas. To find out more please contact Maggie Guillebaud at maggieguillebaud@gmail.com.
