Cathedral Notices

Printer Cartridge Recycling. Thank you for supporting the Cathedral as a collection point for printer cartridge recycling. In 2023 around 300 cartridges were recycled, generating a £117.50 donation to the Cathedral. Please encourage others to join this eco-Church initiative – via the bag in the south aisle near the font on Sunday mornings or in the vestry (when this is open). Branded cartridges only please, not supermarket/unbranded. To learn more about the scheme please see www.emptiesplease.com/charities/

Magna Carta, Conversations in Salisbury 1260. Sue Allenby has written another novel about C13 Salisbury: Magna Carta, Conversations in Salisbury 1260: £9.95, from the Cathedral shop or Amazon, profits from both going to the Cathedral. It may not be quite as you expect! On the front cover, a pair of men's long-toed shoes in fine red leather. On the back cover, the reader is standing in the queue at Fish Stall No 4 while ahead men are gossiping about the stranger who wears those shoes and behind Millie Miller would like to be served - preferably today! The Dean says, "Those of us who enjoyed Elias of Dereham will thank Sue Allenby for leading us into our medieval past once more, with the eye for detail and narrative flair that we have come to expect of her".

An Introduction to the Gospel of Mark. Tues 23 Jan 2024, 7.30–8.45pm in Sarum College. (This is a re-rerun for those unable to get seats at the November session.) Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. Mark's gospel, from which most Sunday morning gospel readings will be taken in 2024, is the earliest life of Jesus and so vital to our understanding of his life and mission. This evening will consider the structure of Mark and its core themes – secrecy and proclamation, exorcism and conflict, faith and doubt. Free but limited places so booking essential via the Cathedral website.

Edward Burne-Jones: Windows to the Soul Talk. Thurs 1 Feb 2024 at 7pm in the North Transept. In the Footsteps of St Peter: A Pilgrimage to Rome, 18–24 May 2025. The Revd Maggie Guillebaud, assisted by Canon Probert, will lead a pilgrimage to Rome to search out the very earliest evidence of Christianity in that iconic city, not least the presences of Sts Peter and Paul who helped shape early Christian life there. We shall visit not only 4th century churches, often built over the sites of the martyrdom of early Christian converts, but also the Catacombs and the Scavi beneath the high altar of St Peter, where some believe the bone of St Peter have been found. We shall be staying at the charming convent of Santa Brigida in the centre of Rome. This pilgrimage will be strenuous. It will be hot, we shall be walking on cobbled streets, and we shall be going up and down many steep staircases to reach these early sites. If you require walking aids this will not be a suitable trip for you, alas. To find out more please contact Maggie Guillebaud at maggieguillebaud@gmail.com.
