Saturday 16 March: Canon Nigel Davies

Intercessions

The Sick: Rosemary Gainsbury, Mary White, Graham Turner, Sam Poppleton, Paul Jackson.

Recently Departed: Chris Greenwood, Pamela MacLaren, Charles Taylor.

Year's Mind: Nick Bevan (2000), Annabelle Dominy (2021), Robert Green (2009), Tricia Bennet (2019), Dene Turner (2012), Hilda Kathleen Dickson (1970), Kenneth Sidney Eckett (2016).

March Prisoner of Conscience: Umar Khalid raised his voice against religious discrimination and human rights violations. As a result, the Muslim human rights defender and scholar has been imprisoned in India, solely for peacefully exercising his rights to freedom of expression and assembly. He was arrested on 13th September 2020, accused of inciting communal violence through his speeches. He has been held in prison for three years without trial with his bail applications repeatedly rejected.

Cathedral Notices

God and the ballot box: Christian perspectives on General Election issues. The Cathedral is delighted to host an ecumenical Lent Lecture programme with speakers from across the churches of Salisbury. Mondays in Lent, 7.30–9pm in the Cathedral. To include a talk, Q&A, and Compline. Entry free; no booking required.

- Mar 11 John Proctor (Roman Catholic) Immigration and Refugees
- Mar 18 Kenneth Padley (Cathedral) Just Economics

TODAY Fairtrade stall – there will be a stall after the 10.30 service today (10th March), we'll have additional items for Easter.

Lent Lunches every Friday in Lent at the Hungerford Chantry, 54 The Close. Please support the lunches, raising money for the South Sudan Medical Link, who provide not only medicines for use in the clinics but also Maternity Packs and grants for training Midwives and Pharmacists. Our soup and sandwich makers provide all supplies out of the kindness of their hearts. Madeleine, 07773 740789. Cards in aid of Salisbury/Sudan Medical Link will also be available to buy.

Deanery Synod The Cathedral congregation is entitled to be represented on this body by up to 5 lay people, to attend two or three meetings per year, and to report back to the congregation. The newly formed Worshipers' Forum has elected two representatives but would welcome other members of the congregation who might be interested in joining them. Please contact Sonia Woolley if you would like to represent us in this way.

You are warmly invited to the St John Singers' Spring Concert, on Sat 9 March, 7.30pm, at the Methodist Church, St Edmund's Church Street. Directed by Stephen Abbott and accompanied by Ben Mills, the programme will largely be a celebration of the music of Sir Charles Villiers Stanford, the centenary of whose death we commemorate this year. Also joining us will be the local Clarinet Quartet Chalumeaux (Amanda Creese, Sue de Garis, Libby Poppleton & Petra Randall). Tickets (£12.50) from Casa Fina, 62 High Street, Salisbury, from choir members and on the door.

Seven Last Words from the Cross 7.30pm, Wed 27 March. Salisbury Cathedral Choir are joined by a professional string orchestra for their Holy Week concert performance of Sir James MacMillan's moving work Seven Last Words from the Cross alongside Finzi Lo the full final sacrifice, Halls Elegy for Strings and L'Estrange Drop, drop slow tears. The traditional text of the Seven Last Words from the Cross is based on a compilation from all four gospels to form a sequential presentation of the last seven sentences uttered by Christ. This intense, moving and expressive work will form part of the Cathedral's Holy Week liturgical offering. Tickets priced from £10–£20 for adults and £7.50 for children, available from the Cathedral Website and Box Office.

Amici, The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral Choristers, are hosting a "murder Mystery Evening" at Salisbury Cathedral School on Friday 19th April, in aid of Salisbury Cathedral Choral Foundation. Tickets are priced at £40 per person and include dinner, a welcome drink and a live performance by the professional theatre company "Smoke and Mirrors". Come along for a murderously fun evening in support of our cathedral choristers! To book visit <http://tinyurl.com/amici-mystery>. All enquiries to amici@salisburycathedralschool.com

Naomi House Hospice for sick children was very grateful for the sack of stamps and stamp albums delivered before Christmas. Moira Dickson has now half-filled another sack, due to your diligence in saving stamps, so please continue to collect them for us.
