Intercessions

The Sick: Rosemary Gainsbury, Mary White, Graham Turner, Sam Poppleton, Paul Jackson, Brent Pounds, Annie Durrant.

Recently Departed: Charles Taylor.

Year's Mind: Peter Smith (2023), Hilda Kathleen Dickson (1970), Kenneth Sidney Eckett (2016), Patrick Michael Harrington (2016), Jack Lever (2023), Elsie May Lampard (2020).

March Prisoner of Conscience: Umar Khalid raised his voice against religious discrimination and human rights violations. As a result, the Muslim human rights defender and scholar has been imprisoned in India, solely for peacefully exercising his rights to freedom of expression and assembly. He was arrested on 13th September 2020, accused of inciting communal violence through his speeches. He has been held in prison for three years without trial with his bail applications repeatedly rejected.

Cathedral Notices

Sunday Evensong Organ Duet. At Evensong this Sunday (17th March) the final organ voluntary is an organ duet, played by John Challenger and Ben Mills. The piece is Kenenth Leighton's setting of the Scottish psalm tune 'Martyrs', composed in 1976.

God and the ballot box: Christian perspectives on General Election issues. The Cathedral is delighted to host an ecumenical Lent Lecture programme with speakers from across the churches of Salisbury. Mondays in Lent, 7.30–9pm in the Cathedral. To include a talk, Q&A, and Compline. Entry free; no booking required. The final session is 18 Mar with Canon Kenneth Padley on Just Economics.

Be part of Holy Week. Maundy Thursday (28/03): The Eucharist of the Lord's Supper at 19:30, would you be able and willing to be one of the 12 to have a foot washed as part of that service? Good Friday (29/03): Would you like to be one of the emblem bearers in The Liturgy of Good Friday at 13:30? To help with either of these, please email t.branchvolunteering@salcath.co.uk Thank you.

A BIG THANK YOU. I am so grateful to the loyal people who support the lunches week after week. After four weeks we have raised just over £1,500. So we may top £2,000 this year! Our brothers and sisters in South Sudan send their greetings and prayers. Madeleine

Deanery Synod The Cathedral congregation is entitled to be represented on this body by up to 5 lay people, to attend two or three meetings per year, and to report back to the congregation. The newly formed Worshipers' Forum has elected two representatives but would welcome hearing from other members of the congregation who might be interested in joining them. Please contact Sonia Woolley if you would like to represent us in this way.

Easter Flowers in Memory of a Loved one. Donations may be left with the Cathedral Vestry in an envelope labelled: Easter Flowers. Cash or cheques made payable to 'Salisbury Cathedral' and names to be remembered. Names of the loved ones will be displayed near the Easter Flowers in the Cathedral. Susan Branch, Salisbury Cathedral Flowers

Seven Last Words from the Cross 7.30pm, Wed 27 March. Salisbury Cathedral Choir are joined by a professional string orchestra for their Holy Week concert performance of Sir James MacMillan's moving work Seven Last Words from the Cross alongside Finzi Lo the full final sacrifice, Halls Elegy for Strings and L'Estrange Drop, drop slow tears. The traditional text of the Seven Last Words from the Cross is based on a compilation from all four gospels to form a sequential presentation of the last seven sentences uttered by Christ. This intense, moving and expressive work will form part of the Cathedral's Holy Week liturgical offering. Tickets priced from £10-£20 for adults and £7.50 for children, available from the Cathedral Website and Box Office.

Cathedral Book Group Last November we launched a Cathedral Book Group and it's time for us to get together again. Led by Anna Macham and Tim Daykin this is a group that shares novels about the Church rather than heavyweight theological tomes. Our next meeting is on Sunday 14 April from 3 until 4pm in Sarum College and we'll be taking about A Month in the Country by J L Carr (Penguin, 1980). The book is available new and second hand, and as a kindle edition. Numbers are limited to 25 and places will be available to book via the Cathedral website from Wednesday this week. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter.

The Dawn Eucharist ends with a procession out proclaiming Easter! At the West End in the Cathedral, we serve: Easter Bucks Fizz, cup of coffee and "something to munch". The ticket is a £5 note for an adult and the children are the guest of us all, i.e. no charge. Trevor & Susan Branch

Amici, The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral Choristers, are hosting a "murder Mystery Evening" at Salisbury Cathedral School on Friday 19th April, in aid of Salisbury Cathedral Choral Foundation. Tickets are priced at £40 per person and include dinner, a welcome drink and a live performance by the professional theatre company "Smoke and Mirrors". Come along for a murderously fun evening in support of our cathedral choristers! To book visit <http://tinyurl.com/amici-mystery>. All enquiries to amici@salisburycathedralschool.com

You are warmly invited to a performance of Stainer's The Crucifixion, sung by the St John Singers, at 6pm on Good Friday, at St John's Church, Bishopstone. The choir is directed by Steve Abbott, accompanied by Ben Mills, and the soloists are Morley Beswick (tenor) and Hugh Hetherington (baritone). Retiring Collection for church funds.
