He has been held in prison for three years without trial with his bail applications repeatedly rejected.

Cathedral Notices

This year's Lent Lectures: God and the Ballot Box can now be viewed as a playlist on Salisbury Cathedral Youtube channel.

TODAY: The Dawn Eucharist ends with a procession out proclaiming Easter! At the West End in the Cathedral, we serve: Easter Bucks Fizz, cup of coffee and "something to munch". The ticket is a £5 note for an adult and the children are the guest of us all, i.e. no charge. Trevor & Susan Branch

Reflective Prayer. Judy Anderson, another of the Cathedral's Lay Canons, will lead the next session on Monday 1st April at 10am. Refreshments can be purchased in the Refectory afterwards. A lovely gentle way to begin a Bank Holiday, after a busy Holy Week and Easter Day. You'd be 'A Fool' to miss out!

The new members of the Worshippers' Forum are Sonia Woolley (chair), Rachel Luton (secretary), Angela Ford, Trevor Branch, Rachel Raja, Rachel Beswick and Anna Anderson-Diaper. Our role is to represent to Chapter the views of Cathedral worshippers on matters concerning the Cathedral and its life. Some of us are normally at coffee after the Sunday Eucharist and there are members at most services. Please do approach any of us at with ideas or questions which we can bring forward to pass on. We look forward to hearing from you.

LENT LUNCHESES 2024. Sincere thanks to all who faithfully supported the Lent Lunches again this year, both those who came and those who donated to the Medical Link, and those who helped provide the soups and sandwiches. The Team works so well and I am enormously grateful for your support. We made £2,000 (Thanks to a late donation to round up to this figure) for the Medical Link, which we all know will provide much in the way of medical relief in South Sudan. These lunches also give the opportunity to gather in fellowship and celebrate our care for each other, as a congregation. We are also most grateful to Anna and Rachel for their hospitality throughout the six weeks, and wish everyone a very Happy Easter. Madeleine & the Lent Lunch Team

The heating in the Cathedral will be turned off after Sunday April 14th. Please dress accordingly. This arrangement aligns with practice in recent years and our environmental aspirations: even in the marginal months of April and October, heating the Cathedral for just one day emits as much carbon dioxide as it takes 24 mature trees to absorb in one year.

Cathedral Book Group Last November we launched a Cathedral Book Group and it's time for us to get together again. Led by Anna Macham and Tim Daykin this is a group that shares novels about the Church rather than heavyweight theological tomes. Our next meeting is on Sunday 14 April from 3 until 4pm in Sarum College and we'll be taking about A Month in the Country by J L Carr (Penguin, 1980). The book is available new and second hand, and as a kindle edition. Numbers are limited to 25 and places will be available to book via the Cathedral website. Anna is the Precentor of Salisbury Cathedral and Tim is an Honorary Canon and a member of the Cathedral Chapter.

Following a decision by the Dean and endorsed by Chapter, the Cathedral is now offering Prayers of Love and Faith for same sex couples as part of our regular Eucharist or Choral Evensong. If you would like to learn more about how these prayers and blessing will work, join Canon Anna after the Eucharist (around 12 midday) in the Trinity Chapel on Sunday 19 May for a special discussion entitled Celebrating Same-Sex Relationships in Anglican liturgies. Feel free to collect your coffee and bring it with you to the Trinity Chapel. Canon Anna explains how we plan to use the new Prayers of Love and Faith and consider how same sex relationships have been recognised and prayed for across the centuries. More information about the Prayers of Love and Faith can be found here : <https://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-and-worship/worship-texts-and-resources/prayers-love-and-faith>

A History of Bible Interpretation from Medieval to Modern Times. Weds 26th June, 7.00-8.15pm, in the Cathedral. Led by Canon Treasurer Kenneth Padley. This talk explores the different ways in which Christians have read their Bibles, often with very different conclusions! Consideration will be given to medieval allegory, 'literal' Reformation interpretation, and the growth of modern critical techniques. Entry is free but there will be a retiring collection towards the costs of occasional talks like this. Please let us know you are coming by booking in via the 'What's on' tab of the Cathedral website.

Amici, The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral Choristers, are hosting a "murder Mystery Evening" at Salisbury Cathedral School on Friday 19th April, in aid of Salisbury Cathedral Choral Foundation. Tickets are priced at £40 per person and include dinner, a welcome drink and a live performance by the professional theatre company "Smoke and Mirrors". Come along for a murderously fun evening in support of our cathedral choristers! To book visit <http://tinyurl.com/amici-mystery>. All enquiries to amici@salisburycathedralschool.com

St John's Bible Open Days at Sarum College. 25–28 April, 10am–5pm. The College's rare collection of giant bibles will be on display in the Seaton Rooms. Free entry, all welcome. Guides will be on hand to answer questions and visitors may take photographs. Enquiries: library@sarum.ac.uk

Hoping to Turn Again: TS Eliot's Middle Years. At Sarum College, 16 May, 10am to 4pm, £70 includes lunch and refreshments. From 1925 to 1935, Eliot was baptised and confirmed, wrote Journey of the Magi, Ash Wednesday and the first of his Four Quartets. He also had a passionate love affair, largely by letter, with Emily Hale. How did these events shape his poems and faith journey? Enquiries: courses@sarum.ac.uk

Sunday Notices Coloured Paper. The Cathedral is experiencing difficulty sourcing pale coloured paper for printing Sunday Notices at the normal cost. Until this is sorted some weeks of the Sunday Notices will be printed on white paper.
