May Prisoner of Conscience: Qahraman Shukri was arrested by security forces in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq (KR-I) in Jan 2021. In June 2021, he was sentenced to 7 years in prison following a grossly unfair, secret trial. Before his arrest, Qahraman Shukri's journalism work was critical of Kurdish authorities' handling of Turkish air strikes in the KR-I. His arrest is in the context of a wider crackdown by Kurdish authorities on the right to freedom of expression.

Cathedral Notices

Trial Service on Sundays 5, 12, 19, 26 May, 9am. Ross Meikle, Missioner for Young People, will be trialling a new service on the Sundays in May. It will start at the Font and move to a different location around the Cathedral and Close each week. The services will be child-friendly and open to all. Contact youth@salcath.org.uk for information or to be added to the Contact List.

Reflective Prayer. On Mon 6 May at 10am Revd Colin Heber-Percy from the Savernake Team in our Diocese will be leading the Reflection and Guided Silence. His recent book Tales of a Country Parish, described as 'eccentric and intimate', is well worth reading and he has also contributed to the CofE's Reflections for Daily Prayer. We are fortunate indeed that he is able to be with us and afterwards, if he is able to tarry, we can join in conversation over a coffee and a cake!

Past sermons and talks by the clergy are available to view online – please search for ‘Salisbury Cathedral YouTube’.

Stanford – A Celebration. Celebrating the legacy of composer Charles Villiers Stanford, who died 100 years ago in 1924, from 6–12 May all music in services will be by Stanford and associated composers. We start the week with Evensong sung by Truro Cathedral Choir on Mon 6 May. The week-long celebration will also feature:

- Wed 8 May – Organ concert given by John Challenger. The programme features not only Stanford’s own organ music, but works by those who influenced him (the Schumanns, and Brahms) and some of the composers he taught (Coleridge-Taylor, Holst, Howells, and Vaughan Williams).
- Sat 11 May – Choral concert given by Salisbury Cathedral Choir and the Choir of St Matthew’s, Westminster. The combined choirs will sing choral works by Stanford as well as his pupils (including Holst, Howells, Vaughan Williams and Rebecca Clarke)

Tickets for both concerts are available to book now from the Cathedral website or 01722 656555.

WORSHIPPERS’ FORUM:

Kneelers. If you would like to use a kneeler during worship in the nave, please ask a steward who will be able to direct you to where you can pick one up.

Following a decision by the Dean and endorsed by Chapter, the Cathedral is now offering Prayers of Love and Faith for same sex couples as part of our regular Eucharist or Choral Evensong. If you would like to learn more about how this will work, join Canon Anna after the Eucharist (around 12noon) in the Trinity Chapel on Sunday 19 May for a special discussion entitled Celebrating Same-Sex Relationships in Anglican liturgies. Feel free to bring your coffee with you. Canon Anna explains how we plan to use the new Prayers of Love and Faith and consider how same sex relationships have been recognised and prayed for across the centuries. More information about the Prayers of Love and Faith can be found here: <https://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-and-worship/worship-texts-and-resources/prayers-love-and-faith>

Sudan Teas Where are all our lovely bakers? We are looking forward to hearing from you with promises of cake for the Open Gardens teas on 26 May. Do let Alison know that you can help a.sutherlandkay@googlemail.com. Thank you for helping, Madeleine (07773740789)

Are you a morning person? Would you enjoy the opportunity to read as part of the daily worship that takes place in The Cathedral. Last year people from our congregation joined the now strong team of those who read at Morning Prayer in the Trinity Chapel at 07:30am Monday to Friday and 08:30am on a Saturday. An opportunity to read the 1st Lesson, normally of good length from the old testament, at the daily service attended by The Cathedral clergy and lay people. Be assured It is not a case of attending every day. To understand more please ask me or The Precentor. Trevor Branch t.branchvolunteering@salcath.co.uk M: 07860 487519
