

Daedalus by Eduardo Paolozzi

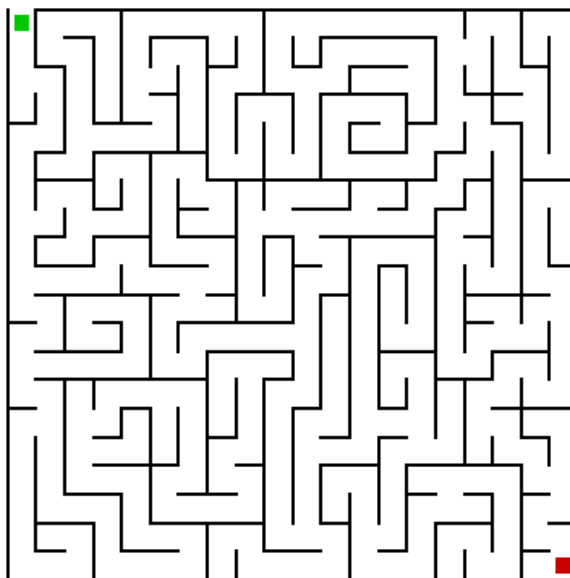

This machine-like sculpture of Daedalus combines Sir Eduardo Paolozzi's artistic skills with an interest in technology and science. Daedalus was a mythical Ancient Greek sculptor, best known for building the great labyrinth in Crete for the minotaur. This reflects Paolozzi's own skills and accomplishments as an artist.

Activity Ideas:

- Find out about the legend of Daedalus and Icarus. Do you know any other Greek myths and legends?
- Make a video of your favourite Greek myth
- Draw a character from the story of Daedalus and Icarus
- Design and make a paper aeroplane and see how far it flies

Can you complete this maze?

Have a go at drawing your own maze for a member of your family.

Please share photos of your creations and pictures inspired by the exhibition on Twitter using #spiritandendeavour