PR	series	Prebends For further information on the history of prebends and former names etc, refer to Lack, A., 'Ross' Canons of Salisbury'. Where items are dated, the prebendary at the time has been listed in the name index.
PR/AA	sub-series	Alton Australis Documents relating to the prebend of Alton Australis, Dorset. Previously called Awelton and in 1291 Aulton in Southbury. Lack states: 'The Manor of Alton Pancras in Dorset was part of the pre-Conquest episcopal estates of Sherborne. By c.1150 two prebends were probably in existence. In the 1220s these were called 'Awelton arch[idiaconi], and 'Awelton', while both were called 'Awelton' without distinction in 1226. In 1284 the names were 'Awelton Sancti Pancratii' and 'Awelton', while in 1291 there was a distinction between 'Aulton in Southbury', later Australis, and 'Aulton in Northbury', later Borealis. From 1329, the holders of the prebends can certainly be distinguished and can be traced back to 1297 but for the purpose of the earlier succession in the prebends, 'Alton Pancras' is taken to be Alton Australis and 'Alton Archidiaconi' to be Borealis' (pp.64 and 87).	1200-1629

PR/AA/1	item	Fragment of a Deed Fragment of a deed. From what can be made out from the remaining text and from what is written on the reverse it seems that Muriel daughter of William son of Richard is setting up a chantry for the souls of her father and mother - the first three lines roughly read: know those present and those to come that I Muriel; for the soul of my father and of my mother...; sheep and four cattle and one bull in pasture. In the fifth line a form of the word eleemosyna appears, which means 'alms'. The reverse reads: therecord of Muriel daughter of William son of Richard who gives to the church of Aulton [Alton] pasture for fifty sheep, four cattle and one bull in her pasture at Aulton. The winesses include [?William] son of Hillary, Theobald [?de Pidel], Hillary Hake. (The paper catalogue suggests that the pasture is next to the church of St Nicholas, which has presumably been inferred from the fourth line of text - this is very difficult to read). NB. It is not clear whether this deed relates to Australis or Borealis; it has been assigned to Australis.	nd [late 13th-14th century]
PR/AA/2	item	Grant of Advowson Grant of next advowson, Dean and Chapter of Salisbury to Daniel S[?onche] of the Close for a perpetual vicarage of Alton Pancras in the County of Dorset. PR/AB	sub-series	Alton Borealis Documents relating to the prebend of Alton Borealis, Dorset. Previously called Awelton and in 1291 Aulton in Northbury. PR/BI	sub-series	Bitton Documents relating to the prebend of Bitton in Gloucestershire.	1100-1802
PR/BI/1	item	Agreement about Land at Wappel This item records a dispute between John Abbot of St Augustine of Bristol and the convent there, and John de Kenovill canon of Salisbury, about the church of Wappel and a hide of land in Sudwike, which the said John claimed to belong to his prebend of Betton [Bitton]. The Abbot and convent agreed to pay one silver mark to the church of Bitton forever. In this way the church or rector could demand nothing more in the church of Wappel [?Wapley] and the said hide. The witnesses were William Abbot of Cainesham, Robert Archdeacon, Geoffrey Marmiun, Robert de [...], Jordan de Bonevill etc. Part of the text is obscured by staining. A transcription of this item may be found in Ellacombe, H T, The History of the Parish of Bitton, in the County of Gloucester (1881).	12th-14th century
PR/BI/2	item	[Confirmation of Conveyances] The writing is largely obscured by staining. According to the endorsement it concerns the Abbot and the Convent of St Augustine Bristol. It may be the confirmation of two conveyances. In the first paragraph it appears to refer to churches of Wappel [?Wapley] and Beaton and possibly to a prebendary, John [Godewyke]. The first paragraph is mostly obscured but may be referring to PR/BI/1. The second paragraph is a quitclaim. It involves Robert de [Hanam] to the Cathedral and the church of Betton [Bitton] and John de Canville [?Kenovill] parson, all his right in 3 messuages next to the [cemetery] of the church of Bitton: in the messuage of Thomas Farderel and in the messuage of Robert [...] and in the messuage of S[...] [...], about which a plea arose between Robert [de Hanam] and John de Canvill [?Kenoville] in the King's court. The witnesses were Walter, Stephen and William chaplains, Robert[Boneville] Peter [...], Ralph Joie, Robert de Betton, etc. Dated 21st July 1380, which presumably refers to the confirmation of both conveyances (the first deed is undated). A partial transcription of this item may be found in Ellacombe, H T, The History of the Parish of Bitton, in the County of Gloucester (1881).	21 Jul 1380

A transcription is available at T:\Library & Archive\Transcriptions. See also pp.70-71 of Rev. W. Dunn Macray (ed.), Salisbury Charters and Documents (1891). The paper catalogue states that 'this fine probably the one referred to - 4 John - in Pr. IV C3 Chardstock/9.' (The persons involved in this agreement indicate that it relates to the prebend of Chardstock (see PR/CH/1) - a note on the envelope previously used to house the item stated that 'presumably the land is connected with prebend of Chardstock').	20 Oct 1202
PR/CH/3	item	Acknowledgement of Phillip de Erticumb about the Chapel of Wanbroke Acknowledgement by Phillip de Erticumb chaplain that the chapel of Wanbroke belonged to the prebend of Cerdestoke [Chardstock]. The item records that a dispute arose between the chaplain and Abraham treasurer of Salisbury (to whom the prebend belonged) about the chapel. Due to the fact that Phillip had no seal of his own, the abbot of Midelton and the convent at his request sealed the document. The witnesses were A[dam] Dean of Salisbury, Hugh the Chancellor, Thomas Sub-Dean, W de Teile, Henry Tellum, Daniel de Longo Campo, Richard chaplain, Henry de [.illepelton], canons, etc. See p. 80 of Rev. Various extracts, including those dated between 1584 and 1597 (some dates are obscured or the fragility of the document makes them difficult to read). As stated on a note previously attached to the document, 'The extracts are in Latin [and English], from "the old register" (St. Osmunds'), Chapter act books, etc., and consist largely of institutions to the vicarage.'	1620-1630

PR/CH/7	item	Terrier of Chardstock A survey of [the] Prebend and Rectory of Chardstock with [the] Rights members [and] appurtenances thereof lying [and] being within [the] Parish of Chardstock in [the] County of Dorset, p[ar]cell of [the] Possessions belonging to [the] Cathedral Church of [the] B[lessed] Virgin Mary in Sarum made [and] taken by us whose names are heereunto subscribed in [the] month of September. 1649. An amicable agreement was made as follows: that every year at the feast of St Michael the monks would pay ten shillings to that rector and his successors in lieu of the said tithes, and this would release them from all obligation, saving to that rector one acre of corn, namely half of grain and half of barley, which the said church was accustomed to receive from the demesne. Given in [September].	Sep 1253

PR/CC/2	item	Grant to the Church of St Edward Winterbourne This appears to be a grant in frankalmoign (in liberam puram et perpetuam eleemosinam) by Richard Dannteseye knight to the church of St Edward de Winterburn Dannteseye and Robert de Beuver [?Beauvoir] canon of Sarum and rector of that church for pasture for 2 draught animals, 1 [ox], and 60 sheep in the town of Winterburn Dannteseye in addition to the right which the said church already had for 4 draught animals, 1 [ox] and 61 sheep. These rights are confirmed. There is reference to land outside the close of Richard's house/courtyard, and it states that excluded from the right of pasture was a meadow called [Inmed.]which extended from Richard's house/courtyard to a watercourse towards the west. There are further details about pasture. It then states that for the right of additional animals (2 draught animals, 1 [ox] and 60 sheep) [Robert] [paid] 6 silver marks. This was granted in pure and perpetual mercy against all men and women. The witnesses were Ralph de Angeriis, Stephen Wudefard and William de Grimestede, knights, then others whose names are obscured [John de Grimestede, Jordan de Larkestocke and John de la Forde] (see PR/CC/3), Thomas de Kaneforde, Richard de Nevill, John le Savage, John Prat, etc. There is an armorial seal. PR/GM/1	item	Indenture of Defects of Property in Gillingham This item is badly stained and very difficult to read. It seems to be a record of the defects in the [?houses] of the rector of Gillingham, taken 12[?gesimo]1. The defects then appear to be valued. There are phrases referring to both internal and external elements including: 'Defectus lat[er]ine sup[er] aq[ua]m in xiid;' 'Defectus cam[er]e iux[ta] portam in xiid;' 'Defect[us] g[ra]ngie que dicit[ur];' 'Defect[us] molendinum et [?] estimant[ur] in vii li. xs;' 'Om[ni]a defect[us] de Motcumb[e] estimant[ur] in xiiis iiiid.' It is not clear whether this item relates to Gillingham Minor or Major; it has been assigned to the Gillingham Minor sub-series as it was found with an item relating to Gillingham Minor.	13th century

The reverse has 'Inter recorda de termi[n]o [?Sanctae] Trinitatis...'. This side is particularly stained and faded, but appears to be a memorandum with calculations - the paper catalogue suggests it is 'about transaction in the Exchequer (of Receipt?), perhaps to do with the subsidy of the clergy, and also apparently the king of France.' The prebend was probably in existence by c.1150 and it was joined to the bishopric on 11 April 1219, in place of the prebend of Major Pars Altaris, on account of the uncertain income of the latter. In 1255 the bishopric assumed the prebend of Pottern and relinquished that of Horton.'	1155-1288

It roughly translates as follows: it was previously decided that the bishop would be admitted to secrets of the chapter as one of the canons and would join the prebend to the bishopric. PR/HB/1	item	Inspeximus of Henry III Charter Inspeximus and confirmation, by P[eter] Bishop of Winchester, of a charter of Henry III concerning the church of Husseburne [Hurstbourne] (see PR/HB/7). The King, believing that the church was in his donation, had presented his clerk Nicholas de Neville to it on its vacancy after the death of Simon de P[erigord] who was formerly dean of Chichester. However, the Bishop of Salisbury and the Chapter claimed it as belonging to the Salisbury prebend of Burbage, on the grounds of an annual pension which the canon of the said prebend was accustomed to receiving from the dean. Having examined charters of earlier kings and others, the claims of the church of Salisbury were established and the King agreed that the church of Hurstbourne belonged to the church of Sarum, as a member of the prebend of Burbage, and that it should be so held in pure and perpetual alms. He assigned to Nicholas de Neville the possession of the church for his life, but saved the rights of both parties. The witnesses were H[ubert] de Burgh, Earl of Kent and Justiciar of England, Stephen de Segrava, Godfrey de Craucumb, John son of [...] (text faded), Godfrey dispensator, and H de Capella. Given by the hand of R[alph] Bishop of Chichester, Chancellor, at Worcester, 21 May 1232 (16th year of Henry III). The Bishop of Winchester now confirms all the above. PR/IL/1	item	Dispute about the Church of Frome The item records a dispute between Richard dean of Salisbury on the one part, and W de Witefeld and his wife Matilda de Monasteriis on the other, about the church of Frome which the said Dean claimed belonged to the prebend of Cermenister [Cherminster]. The right of patronage of the said church of Frome was to remain with the said W and Matilda and their heirs, as it had belonged to Matilda's predecessors from ancient times. When the church was vacant the said W and Matilda were to present a suitable person to the said Dean and his successors canons of Cherminster. And the said church of Frome would have the right of burial of its parishioners in its cemetery, as granted by Bishop Herbert and with the agreement of the Dean. The church would receive oil and [myrrh] from the church of Cherminster. Furthermore any ecclesiastical cause which arose in Frome would be dealt with before the said Dean and his successors the canons of Cherminster [?as if before the Archdeacon]. The parsons and chaplains serving in the church would swear canonical obedience to the Dean and his successors canons of Cherminster. W and Matilda for the salvation of their souls and those of their ancestors gave 6 acres of the manor of Frome in Lichforlag to the church of Cherminster in alms and confirmed it with their charter. For greater security of the agreement, both the Dean and W and Matilda appended their seals, and at the petition of both parties, so did the Chapter. The witnesses were D[aniel] de Longo Campo canon of Salisbury, John chaplain of the Dean, Richard de Mapald[a], Robert Belet and Ralph his son, Turstin the priest, Philip Crubbe, Walter de Walt[er], Roger C[?atte], Reginald Loke, Robert de Monasteriis, Nicholas, William the baker, Ralph, servants, William de Witefeld etc.	1197-1215

PR/IL/7	item	Agreement Between Ralph Canon of York and the Abbot and Convent of Binedon Between Ralph of York canon of the prebend of Cerministre [Cherminster] and Bere on the one part and the abbot and convent of Binedon on the other, about the fact that the said abbot and convent unjustly and wrongly moved the parishioners of the chapel of Bovinton built within the limits of the chapel of Bere, reducing the parish of the said chapel to absolutely nothing. The matter was settled as follows. The said abbot and convent and their successors were daily at their own expense to provide for the divine offices in the said chapel of Bovinton, either by a monk of Binedon or by a suitable secular chaplain. [?If they did not want to have him] then they would present him to the canon of the said prebend and maintain the said chapel and all the books and vestments for the said offices. Saved to the abbot clearings from the south part of the way which led from Cerminster all the way to Warham. Provided that they had sufficient common from that part for their cattle and sheep. And also sufficient allowances of heath in suitable places without making a gift or sale. Thus the common of pasture in the said clearings was safe if they needed after the corn was removed.	1265

PR/LH/1	item	Suit Between Hubert Bishop of Sarum and William Abbot of Sherborne Concerning the Prebend of Sherborne and the Land of Kingston A suit had been moved between Hubert Bishop of Sarum and the Cathedral, and William abbot of Sireb[urn] [Sherborne] and the convent there, by authority of an apostolic mandate. It concerned the prebend of Syreburne [Sherborne] and the land of Kingeston [Kingston] which was said to have been granted to the Cathedral as a prebend, and also the residence. An amicable settlement was made between the abbot and convent and the proctors of Hubert Bishop of Sarum, namely Jordan dean of Sarum, H abbot of Reading, Bartholomew and Symon de Scal[.]. Accordingly the said abbot and convent granted to Bishop Hubert and his successors and the Cathedral the churches of Lim and Halgestoke [Lyme and Halstock] forever with all their appurtenances, with the advowson and all other rights which they had, to be one prebend. The Bishop's proctors, having observed the poverty and need of the monastery of Sherborne granted to the abbot and convent all the profits and advantages of the churches of Stapelbrige and Stoke, when they became vacant, saving reasonable support for perpetual vicars and episcopal customs. Meanwhile the abbot and convent could take from the church of Stapelbrige 100s annually until it became vacant, and when the church of Coriscumbe [Corscombe] became vacant, they could take annually two marks, saving the episcopal customs. The proctors released to the said abbot and convent the suit (part of the left edge of the document is missing; up until this point the transcription on pp.50-51 of Rev. W. Dunn Macray (ed.), Salisbury Charters and Documents (1891) has been used; following this point the translation may not be quite correct due to missing words) moved against them, granting them the said prebend of Sherborne and the land of [?Kingston], which they controlled. And the proctors ordained that the abbot of Sherborne and his successors were [alternatively were not? - text missing] bound to keep residence in the Cathedral for the said prebend while they had a vicar there. In testimony the document was sealed with the seals of H Bishop of Sarum, the seal of the chapter, and the seals of the abbot and convent of Sherborne. Also the seals of the four proctors. Made in the Chapter House of Sarum. The witnesses were Reginald Bishop of Bath, Walter abbot 'de Fulgeriis', William and Azo archdeacons, Vincent, Jordan, John de Cernai, Geoffrey de Osteilli, Ernilio, William de [Pottern], William monk of Cerne, Adam, Walter de Wicton, Roger clerk of Stapelbrige.	6 Jun 1191

Since the said churches were not yet vacant, he promises every year until the church of Lyme is vacant to pay 100s from his treasury to the canon to whom the said church is assigned, at the four terms of the year, until the church ceases to be vacant. Made in the Chapter House.
