Residence this week

The Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos, Dean

Thursday 5 March: Canon Anna Macham

Intercessions

The Sick: Thalia Eyers, Jane Singleton.

Recently Departed: John O'Reilly Sykes, Nigel Wright.

Year's Mind: Lucy Carpenter (2013), Elizabeth (Liz) Keynes (2017), Robin Davidson (2025).

March Prisoner of Conscience: Moussa Tchangari, Secretary-General of Alternative Espaces Citoyens, is one of Niger's most prominent civil society leaders. He has long worked to promote human rights, civic dialogue, and democratic values. On 3 December 2024, he was arrested, which we believe to be motivated by his public statements on governance and politics in Niger. He has been held in detention and faces charges with no credible evidence, solely for the peaceful exercise of his right to freedom of expression. He has been charged with advocating terrorism and criminal association in connection with terrorism, "infringing on national defence" and "intelligence with enemy countries". Moussa Tchangari's arrest is a worrying signal for all citizens who wish to participate in public debate and defend democratic principles without fear of repression. We demand the immediate release of Moussa Tchangari, and call upon Niger's authorities to drop all charges against him.

Cathedral Notices

Reflective Prayer The Dean will be leading us in Reflective Prayer tomorrow, 2 March, from 10-10.50. Do join us in the Trinity Chapel for 50 minutes of prayer and reflection, followed by coffee and fellowship in the Refectory afterwards. A great way to begin a busy week. And bring a friend! Maggie Guillebaud.

World Day of Prayer 2026 The annual service celebrating the World Day of Prayer will be held at Salisbury Baptist Church, Brown Street on Friday 6 March at 2pm. This year's celebration has been written by women in Nigeria. The service reflects on the biblical theme 'I will give you rest'. This day of prayer is a demonstration of global solidarity, celebrated in over 120 countries. It begins in Samoa and prayer in native languages travels through Asia, Africa, the Middle East, Europe and the Americas before finishing in American Samoa. In Salisbury this ecumenical occasion has been organised by the local committee who are all members of the city's churches. Do come and bring your friends to join this worldwide wave of prayer and enjoy tea afterwards. Felicity Green

Choral Music by Candlelight Join us at 8pm on Friday 6 March for a performance of Buxtehude's Membra Jesu Nostri, one of the most profound devotional masterpieces of the Baroque, conducted by Ed Rimmer with professional singers and instrumentalists. The cycle of cantatas meditates on the suffering Christ, combining poignant text, expressive vocal writing and glowing instrumental colour. Tickets are £15 (adults) or £7.50 (children/students) available via the website or on the door.

Fairtrade stall next Sunday 8 March after the 10.30 service - cards & chocolates for Easter.

What is Truth? Lent Lectures 2026. Fake news and technological development are rapidly redefining our world so this year's lectures will explore Christian perspectives on the nature and significance of truth. Mondays in Lent, 7.30pm in the Cathedral followed by Compline at 8.45pm.

- March 2 – Tim Bull Faith and Artificial Intelligence
- March 9 – Young people of the Cathedral in conversation with Ross Meikle Truth for the young
- March 16 – James Woodward Truth in older age
- March 23 – Kenneth Padley Greenhushing: is sustainability being silenced?

Entry is free but it would help our planning if you could indicate your intention to attend. Booking arrangements and speakers' biographies are on our website: salisburycathedral.org.uk/arrangements/lent-lectures-2026/. To help Ross' panel (March 9) to give their best we are asking that all questions be submitted in advance. If you are attending the evening and wish to ask a question, please message youth@salcath.co.uk by noon on Friday 6 March.

Lent Lunches. A dedicated group of volunteers arrange homemade soup and sandwiches during Lent as a chance to get together and raise funds for the Diocese of Salisbury's longstanding link with medical projects in South Sudan. Every Friday 20 February–27 March, 12.30–1.45pm, meeting at 54 The Close, SP1 2EL. Please come and bring a friend.

Dreams: The Path to Wholeness Curious about the meaning and purpose of your dreams? The Revd Dr Lisa Cornwell, priest, theological teacher and author, leads a workshop at Sarum College on Thursday 12 March 10–4. Details on the College website: www.sarum.ac.uk/short-courses/

Do you want to listen better? Come along to a Training in Listening day at Salisbury Methodist Church on Saturday 21 March, 10–4. Register for the course at manager@thelisteningplace.org.uk

A Voice in Deanery Synod The worshipping community already has two members on this body, but we are entitled to appoint three more members. It is important that the Cathedral congregation should have a voice to represent our views, and to share views with members from other churches. Please get in touch with any member of the Forum, (we now have badges to help to identify us!), or leave a message in the Vestry addressed to Sonia Woolley, Chair of the Forum. We will be happy to provide further information for anyone interested in representing us, please think about it!

Praying for the Archbishop and all who lead in the Church and the World On Tuesday 24 March the Cathedral is dedicating an hour to prayer for Archbishop Sarah and for all who are called to the complex demands of leadership in these uncertain times. Join us in the Trinity Chapel between 11.30–12.00 for silent prayer. At 12.00, the Bishop will preside at a celebration of the Eucharist (within which the Dean will offer a homily). Please come and, if you are unable to, please make space on this day to pray for our new Archbishop and for all who lead.

From the Dean: our Precentor, Canon Anna Macham, has been granted Extended Ministerial Development (sabbatical) Leave, and will be away from the Cathedral for three months in Eastertide. Her last Sunday will be 26 April, and she will return on Sunday 16 August. During her absence the Vicar of the Close will work an additional day each week. We are grateful to Jules for agreeing to this and wish Anna a refreshing and fulfilling break from her ministry among us.
