July Prisoner of Conscience: On 21 April, activist Rakotoarijaona Vonimahery (known as 'Mahery') was arbitrarily arrested without a warrant in the capital city Antananarivo at his place of work by gendarmes. He was taken into custody at the Criminal Brigade, where he was held for approximately one week without access to legal counsel and charged with "criminal conspiracy". If convicted, he faces up to five years imprisonment solely for peacefully exercising his rights to freedom of expression and association by engaging in conversations with a former political figure via WhatsApp regarding the status of the current political transition in Madagascar and the broken promises of reform. Amnesty International calls on the Malagasy authorities to immediately and unconditionally release Mahery and all other activists detained solely for exercising their human rights.

Summer Sermons Resonating with the theme of Joyful Noise, this year's series celebrates the 'Secret Songs of Scripture'. These are verses hidden within the Bible which once circulated as independent poetry or hymns or have been shaped into canticles by later editors. From 26 July–13 September the clergy will explore four from the Hebrew Scriptures and four from the New Testament.

From 7–8pm on the Monday following each sermon there will be a Zoom for those who wish to delve deeper into the reading and reflections. To receive the Zoom code, please enter your email address at www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/summer-sermons/ If you received the link last year you don't need to sign up again. This webpage also lists the preachers, dates and Bible readings.

Readers for Morning Prayer Morning Prayer is in the Trinity Chapel at 07:30 Mon–Fri and 08:30 on Sat, attended by clergy and lay people. The first lesson is normally taken from the Old Testament. If you would like to be part of this service and read this lesson, please contact Trevor Branch – t.branchvolunteering@salcath.co.uk / 07860 487519. The service is followed by Holy Communion at 10 minutes to the hour.

Servers Would you like to carry a candle, the cross and be part of the serving team? On midweek saints' days and festivals there are sung Eucharist services at 17:30, and on Sunday mornings at 8am there is a said Holy Communion, both requiring servers. If you would like to serve, please contact Trevor Branch – t.branchvolunteering@salcath.co.uk / 07860 487519.

Taking up The Bread and Wine The elements of the bread and wine are processed by different people at each Sunday 10:30 Eucharist. If there is a particular date or any Sunday that you would like to be part of the offertory procession, please contact Trevor Branch – t.branchvolunteering@salcath.co.uk / 07860 487519 or the Vicar of the Close.

Confirmation Refresh An opportunity for those previously confirmed (however long ago!) who would like to revisit the major building blocks of Christianity. Tuesdays evenings 15th September – 20th October. This is a small (free) discussion group – limited places. If you would like to explore whether this might be for you and for more details, please speak with Canon Kenneth: chancellor@salcath.co.uk (Separate information for those wishing preparation for Confirmation next Easter to follow in due course but early expressions of interest to Kenneth would be warmly welcomed.)

Exploring Faith Thank you to the nearly 300 people who completed our recent Exploring Faith survey. This volume and quality of data will facilitate robust reflection on our communities' circumstances and aspirations, and inform future learning opportunities. Kenneth Padley

From the Revd Sophie Ferguson, Assistant Curate A HUGE THANKS to everyone who came and supported the recent Ordinations and particular thanks to those who contributed to a momentous weekend as I joined the Priesthood. I have received so many thoughtful cards and gifts and I wanted to say thank you to anyone who contributed. I now have a full set of commentaries and a beautiful Baptism shell, which will support and enable my ongoing ministry. Thanks to Susan and team for the cake and hospitality. To Dean Nick and the clergy team for their support and to the congregation for your prayers and encouragement. THANK YOU.
