Residence this week

Canon Neil Traynor, Treasurer
Friday 13 November – Canon Kenneth Padley, Chancellor

Intercessions

Recently Departed: None.

Year's Mind: Maddie Davies (2024), Susan Keynes (2014), John Roseaman (2014), Tony Cousins (2024), David Brown (2024), Rosemary Fisher (2015)

November Prisoner of Conscience: Owen Chow is a former nursing student who has been convicted of "conspiracy to commit subversion" under the National Security Law after standing in unofficial "primaries" for elections to be held in Hong Kong in 2020. He was arrested in 2021 and by 2024 had been sentenced to more than 12 years in prison. His prosecution and conviction are part of a wider crackdown on the rights to freedom of expression, peaceful assembly and political participation in Hong Kong.

Cathedral Notices

Amici Christmas Cards There will be opportunities to buy Christmas cards and notelets after Eucharist today and in the upcoming weeks. Amici, the chorister parent fundraising body, will have a table at the back of the cathedral where you can purchase cards to raise funds for the choral foundation.

Fairtrade stall with extra items for Advent & Christmas next Sunday 15th after the 10.30 service.

Sarum Master Bible The Cathedral acquired the Sarum Master Bible in Dec 2024, following a fundraising campaign run by Friends of the Nations' Libraries. The illustrated manuscript Bible was made probably in Salisbury in the 1240s or 50s. The manuscript will be on display in the North Quire Aisle from 26 Oct–2 Nov (incl. October half-term), and 9–30 Nov. Please note, this space is not open around/during some services and the manuscript will not be displayed 3-8 Nov, due to Sarum Lights.

The People's Emergency Briefing Future showings of this powerful documentary about the urgent need to respond to climate change are at Emmaus House, Wilton, Thurs 5 Nov, 14.30 and The Radnor Hall, Bodenham, Tues 1 Dec at 18.30.

Lighten our Darkness: Celebrating Choral Evensong A day-long short course introducing and exploring the service of Choral Evensong, including its history, theology and music, and its cultural and spiritual value today. 10am-4pm, Mon 9 Nov, led by Canon Anna Macham, Precentor. Booking via Sarum College website.

Salisbury Musical Society: Elgar's 'The Apostles' Majestic and triumphant, dark and dramatic, tender and lyrical, 'The Apostles' is one of Elgar's great choral composition yet it is not frequently performed. The sheer scale of the work demands an impressive musical force: a large choir, professional symphony orchestra and six soloists. This concert promises a memorable evening of music on the scale Elgar intended. Sat 14 Nov, 19:30 at the Cathedral. Tickets – www.salisburymusicalsociety.org.uk

An Introduction to the Gospel of John Some of the most famous stories and sayings of Jesus are only found in the fourth gospel. This evening is an opportunity to immerse ourselves in John's stories and values. 7pm, Tues 17 Nov, led by Kenneth Padley. Booking via Cathedral website/entrance desk. £10 (adult) £5 (student) U18 free. If you would like to attend but cost is an issue, please email chancellor@salcath.co.uk.

Late Night Concert: Abraham and Isaac Join the Cathedral Lay Vicars for an intimate candlelit concert celebrating the music of Benjamin Britten and his contemporaries. The concert will feature Britten's Canticle II: Abraham and Isaac for alto, tenor and piano, a dramatic retelling of the biblical text. Sat 21 Nov, 19:30, North Transept. Tickets £15 (adult), £5 (child) via the Cathedral website or Box Office – Boxoffice@salcath.co.uk / 01722 656 555.

This concert forms part of a wider weekend at Salisbury Cathedral celebrating the life and music of Benjamin Britten on the 50th anniversary of his death. The weekend will culminate with a special service of Choral Evensong on Sun 22 Nov, marking the Feast of St Cecilia and Benjamin Britten's birthday, when Britten's Hymn to St Cecilia will be sung by the Cathedral Choir.

Cathedral Audit and Risk Committee We are looking for an experienced and qualified accountant to join this Committee on a voluntary basis. The Committee is a statutory one which meets for a couple of hours once a quarter. If you, or anyone you know, are interested please contact Jackie Molnar, the Chapter Clerk (Chief Operating Officer) by email: j.molnar@salcath.co.uk or call 01722 555105.

Regular Giving Update Thank you to all who responded to the Cathedral's giving campaign in May. Our aims were to promote regular giving through the direct debit Parish Giving Scheme (PGS), to encourage existing donors to review their support, and to highlight the importance of legacies to the Cathedral. Since the campaign, we are pleased to report that overall regular giving is up 10% in real terms, a further 10% of regular donors have transferred from standing order to PGS, and we have had some positive and inspiring conversations about legacies. Since the 2023-24 financial year, overall regular giving is up more than 20% in real terms, the total number of regular givers has increased 15%, and 60% of regular donors now use PGS. To find out more about becoming a regular donor, please search online for 'PGS Salisbury Cathedral'. Thank you again for your support of this important part of our life and ministry together.

Cathedral Lay Pastoral Assistants More recruits are needed to take Communion and make home visits to those who can no longer come to the Cathedral services in person. If you have a little spare time and energy and would like to know more, please contact Revd Jules A. Barnes - voc@salcath.co.uk. Training is provided (free), there is an episcopal commissioning, and ministry is very flexible both in terms of how much you do and when you do it. Please think about helping those in our community in this way, and get in touch if you think you could help. Thank you!

Stamps in aid of Naomi Hospice Please save all British and foreign stamps (not Scout stamps) in and of Naomi Hospice for sick children. Please cut ½ inch round the stamps and bring them to the vestry in an envelope.
